RUMANIANS IN FACE OF TEUTON ATTACKS CONTINUE TO RETIRE

Towns of Toprai Sari and Cobadin, in Dobrudja, Taken by Forces of Central Powers.

RUSSIANS SUFFER DEFEAT

Berlin Claims Important Victory Along Narayuvka River, in Galicia, Last Week.

BRITISH GAIN IN FRANCE

Germans Aiding Bulgarians in Fighting the Serbians.

In the face of continued violent attacks by the Teutonic allies in Dobrudja, from the Danube to the Black Sea, the Rumanians and their Russian allies are still falling back.

The towns of Toprai Sari, 14 miles southwest of Cotstanza, and Cobadin, 17 miles southeast of the Danube town of Rachova, have been taken by the combined Austrian, German, Bulgarian and Turkish forces, who are declared by Berlin to be in pursuit of their defeated antagonists.

Rumanians Fight Stubbornly.

On the Transylvania front hard fighting continues in the mountain passes but with the result in doubt, owing to the conflicting statements of the Berlin, Petrograd and Bucharest war offices. Petrograd says the Rumanians have been forced back in the Buzeu valley. Bucharest, however, asserts that counter attacks by the Teutonic allies here were repulsed at the point of the bayonet. It is evident that no great changes in position have taken place anywhere along this front, but that the Rumanians are fighting tenaciously to hold back the would-be invaders of their country.

Big Victory for Teutons.

The battle of the last week along the Narayuvka river in Galicia has resulted in an important victory for the Austro-Germans over the Russians, according to Berlin. Here the Russians now hold only a small part of the front on the west bank of the river after a general attack by the Teutonic Allies between Sviteiniki and Skomovochy in which the Russians were driven back suffering heavy casualties Petrograd, says, however, that the fighting along the river is still going on and that the positions have changed hands several times.

German Attacks Repulsed.

Twice during Sunday—in the morning and afternoon—the Germans launched violent attacks against the positions newly won by the French in the Chaulnes wood south of the Somme river in France. Both attacks were repulsed, the Germans suffering heavy casualties ,according to Paris. Some of the attacks in the morning offensive gained a foothold in the French first line, but were surrounded and the 150 survivors made prisoner.

Berlin, in admitting that in Saturday's fighting the British north of the Somme made gains, characterizes the British losses as a "reckless sacrifice of human lives."

Several trenches between Biaches and LaMaisonnette, south of the Somme, were re-captured Saturday from the French, says Berlin.

Slight Progress in Macedonia.

Notwithstanding bad weather on the Macedonian front, slight additional progress has been made by the Entente Allies in the Cerna river region. German troops are now aiding their Bulgarian allies in the fighting at the bend of the Cerna.

Heavy rain storms and snow falls are impeding the operations in the Austro-Italian theatre.

A German aeroplane, which dropped four bombs at Sheerness, England, Sunday ,is believed to have been the same aircraft that was destroyed later and fell into the sea under the attack of a British naval aeroplane.

GERMANS NOW ASSISTING IN CHECKING ADVANCE OF SERBS

Berlin, Oct. 22 (via Sayville).—German troops now are assisting the Bulgarians in an attempt to check the advance of the Serbians who forced a passage of the Cerna river, on the Macedonian front, southeast of Monastir, and captured several towns. The official account of today in regard to the Macedonian campaign follows:

"The struggle in the bend of the Cerna has not been terminated. German troops are engaged there."

VIOLENT ATTACK MADE BY GERMANS AGAINST FRENCH

Paris, Ovt. 22 (via London).—A violent atack on the new French positions in the region of Chaulnes, on the Somme front, was made by the Germans early today. The war office announced that the French maintained their ground and inflicted heavy losses on the Germans. The statement follows:

"North of the Somme, the night was calm, except for some skirmishes between patrols, which resulted in our taking some prisoners. There were no infantry actions.

"South of the Somme the enemy did not renew his attempts in the region

REGINA TRENCH IS TAKEN BY BRITISH

They Turned on Enough Gun-Fire and Sent in Enough Men to Get It All at One "Bite."

FAIR WEATHER OPENS WAY

Six Hundred Germans Taken Prisoner With the Position—Soldiers in the Trenches Are Now Wearing Overcoats.

(Copyrighted 1916 by Associated Press)

British Front in France, Oct. 21 (via London, Oct. 22).—With the return of fighting weather, the British resumed the offensive on a larger scale this afternoon and turned on enough gun-fire and sent in enough troops to make sure Regina trench was theirs. It was the most important attack for three weeks.

All this month Regina trench has been developing a sinister reputation. It joins onto the old first line fortifications in the neighborhood of Thiepval and anything in that region, with comfortable dugouts, the Germans like to retain in order to prevent the active battle front from broadening, and for another reason which a British soldier expressed when he said:

"With winter coming on we feel the need of those deep snug dugouts the Germans spent so much time in building."

Parties of the British got possession of portions of Regina trench on several occasions, but the Germans swarmed in front of their burrows and repulsed the invaders. Evidently, Regina trench was not to be taken by nibbling and required one big bite. In such cases there is nothing to do but wait till clear weather when the gunners can see what they are doing and turn on a No. 1 artillery curtain fire.

Yesterday morning a set gunner's smile was on the face of the whole army. Instead of rain and mist making a gunner's bane of low visibility, an almost wintry sun was shining in crystal clear air—literally an artillerymans' heaven. All the gun tribe necessary for the job were up and in position already waiting for such a day as this, when the eyes that see for them from the observation posts can tell whether the practice shells they leisurely fire are on the target which they are to paste as far as they can on the signal being given for the concert to begin. When the same kind of weather continued today, staff officers who arrange those affairs said: "This is moving day for the Germans in Regina trench."

"LOST" SHIP ARRIVES

Norwegian Vessel, Many Days Overdue, Reaches Gulfport, Miss.

Gulfport, Miss., Oct. 22.—The full rigged Norwegian ship Gunda, overdue heer many days from Barbadoes and given up for lost by her agents, arrived safely at this port today. The Gunda sailed from Barbadoes for Gulfport August 22.

London, Oct. 22.—Lloyd's reports that the following Norwegian vessels had been sunk: Steamers Dido (232 tons), Fart III and Fulvio, the latter without warning; the bark Cottica, the bark Guldaas and the Cock-of-the Walk, and several barges.

LINER ARAPAHOE AT NEWPORT NEWS

Cutters Seminole and Tampa Towed Ship Into the Capes Early Yesterday Afternoon.

VESSEL TO BE DRYDOCKED

Loss of Her Rudder the Only Damage—Passengers Experienced No Hardships or Danger—Will Go by Rail to New York.

Norfolk, Va., October 22. — Towed by the coast guard cutters Seminole and Tampa, and convoyed by the new Mallory Line steamer Henry R. Mallory, the Clyde Line steamer Arapahoe passed in the Virginia capes early this afternoon and anchored in Hampton Roads. The only damage to the Arapahoe, according to the reports of her agents, is the loss of her rudder, in the severe storm off Hatteras last Thursday.

A number of the passengers of the Arapahoe tonight were landed at Old Point Comfort, from which point they will proceed to their destinations by other boat lines and by rail. Those seen declared that with the exception of seasickness and a general shaking up during the storm they had experienced no hardships or danger, so far as they were aware. In fact, it was freely admitted that but for the fact that they were unable to proceed for a time, and finally had to be taken in tow by the cutters, they would not have known that the ship had happened to have an accident.

At a late hour tonight the Arapahoe was towed by tugs to Newport News, where she was docked at one of the piers of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. The remaining passengers aboard the steamer will be sent on to New York tomorrow morning by rail. Divers are expected to examine the rudder machinery tomorrow morning, and later the ship will be dry docked for repairs.

It is not expected that there will be a delay of more than a day or two, when the Arapahoe will resume her voyage to New York to discharge her cargo.

The steamer Henry R. Mallory, recently completed at Newport News, on order of her owners put to sea early Saturday morning, with agents of the Clyde Line aboard, to assist the disabled ship, but finding their services were not needed, preceded the Arapahoe into port yesterday, landed the Clyde officials, and again put to sea.

William A. Marable, agent of the Clyde Line, in a statement to the Associated Press tonight declared that the loss of a rudder was the only damage to the Arapahoe; that not a passenger was injured; that there was no panic on board at any time, and that the ship would be again serviceable before the end of the week.

MOTON URGES THE NEGROES TO REMAIN IN THE SOUTH

Tells Them to Make Every Effort to Improve Living Conditions.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 22.—Negroes were urged to stay in the South and make every effort to improve their living conditions there by Major Moton, president of the Tuskegee Institute, who addressed a large audience here today. The subject was suggested by the large number of negroes who have left for the North recently, most of them to work in munitions factories.

"In New York, I understand from a letter received from a physician, the negroes are finding it very difficult even now to find places to stay," said Major Moton. "They are huddled together in quarters like pigs and there is certain to be suffering this winter. The will take colds, develop pneumonia or consumption, and will either die or be brought home in a dying condition."

DENIES HAVING AGREEMENT WITH O'LEARY AND OTHERS

Hughes Replies to Charges of the Democratic Committee That He Has a Secret Understanding With the "American Independent Conference"---Statement Made Just Before Midnight

New York, October 22. — Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President, denied today the charges of the Democratic National Committee that he had entered into a secret agreement with the American Independent Conference, in which Jeremiah O'Leary is said to be the central figure.

His denial was in a reply to a statement issued from Democratic headquarters in this city, containing what purported to be a report made by Mr. O'Leary, at the session of the conference in Chicago, of what occurred at a meeting between Mr. Hughes and a committee from the conference headed by O'Leary. In this alleged report O'Leary was quoted as having said:

"Mr. Hughes promised that his future conduct in the speech-making line should be entirely satisfactory to the interests of the committee."

The Democratic statement charged that O'Leary and his committee were delegated to meet Mr. Hughes and ascertain his attitude with regard to Mr. Roosevelt's pro-British and anti-American utterances in particular and his (Mr. Hughes') policies in general.

The Republican reply was issued at Montclair at midnight. Chairman Willcox called early in the evening and while in conference with Mr. Hughes the Democratic statement was read to them over the telephone.

A few minutes before midnight, Chairman Willcox issued this statement:

"Chairman Willcox said this evening that the matter referred to had been brought to the attention of Mr. Hughes over the telephone, and that Mr. Hughes replied: 'I saw the persons mentioned at their request about the middle of September and just as I have seen all persons and delegations so far as possible who have asked me to receive them.

"'I have said nothing in private that I have not said in public. At the very beginning, in my speech of acceptance, I declared my position in favor of the absolute protection of American lives, American property and American commerce. This I reiterated to these persons, and I have stated it to all others who have asked interviews as well as in my public speeches.

"'To this maintenance of all American rights, I adhere, and shall continue to adhere. I have declared over and over again that I have made no private agreements and have engaged in no intrigues, and I repeat that statement.'"

After quoting Mr. Hughes, as above,

ASSASSINATION OF AUSTRIAN PREMIER PURELY POLITICAL

Adler Says He Shot Count Stuerghk Because of Refusal to Convene Parliament.

ARRESTED AND LOCKED UP

Assassin is an Eccentric and Super-Radical Socialist—Story of the Shooting.

Vienna, Saturday, Oct. 21, (via Berlin and Sayville by wireless to the Associated Press, Oct. 22).—The assassination of the Austrian Premier, Count Karl Stuergkh, was purely political and was induced by his refusal to convene parliament, according to the admission of Dr. Friedrich Adler, his assailant, shortly after his arrest.

Dr. Adler is an eccentric and superradical socialist, sometimes known as "the Liebknecht of Austria." He is editor of Der Kampf. At first he declined to reveal his motives, but after being locked up he broke down and declared the premier's political policies had led him to do the deed.

Dr. Adler's arrest was not accomplished without the wounding of two men who leaped at him after he had fired on Count Stuergkh. He discharged the two remaining chambers of his revolver at these men before Austrian and German officers, with drawn sabres, overpowered him.

Count Stuergkh was at lunch with Baron Aehrenthal, Count Toggenburg, governor of the Tyrol, and two others when a man unknown to the premier arrived and took a seat three tables away. He ate luncheon and paid for the meal, but lingered at the table.

Shortly after 3 o'clock the man arose, advanced quickly toward the premier and fired three shots. The first missed. The next two struck the premier in the head. Without a word, Count Stuergkh fell back lifeless in his chair. Baron Aehrenthal sprang toward Adler. The head waiter ran up from behind the assassin and grasped the hand that held the revolved. Adler wrested his arm free and fired two shots. Baron Aehrenthal was wounded in the foot. The waiter received only a superficial wound.

Seeing that the struggle was hopeless Dr. Adler surrendered to the officers who crowded upon him and gave up his revolved. Apparently he was the calmest man in the room. He gave his name without hesitation and added: "If you please, gentlemen, I know perfectly well what I have done. I shall not resist arrest."

In reply to a question as to the reason for his act, he said at first: "That I shall have to answer in court."

It was half an hour later that he admitted that he had been actuated by political motives. News of the assassination spread like wild fire and was received with indignation and sorrow.

The assassin, who is 32 years old, is a son of Dr. Victor Odler, a Reichsrath deputy and a Socialist of mild type. The father was speaking before the Reichsrath in 1911 when Count Stuergkh was shot at six times by the Dalmatian Socialist Vakusch. On that occasion the count was uninjured.

LITTLE KNOWN IN BERLIN AS TO MOTIVES OF ADLER

Berlin, Saturday, Oct. 21, (via wireless to the Associated Press, via Sayville, Oct. 22).—Little is known here regarding the motives of the assassination of Premier Stuergkh. The Premier was a firm opponent of progressive trends in Austrian politics. He withstood unswervingly the demand for the convocation of the parliament, which has not been in session since before the war. He was largely responsible for the stern Austrian press censorship, but there were no indications here that the waves of political feeling had run high enough in Austria to result in his assassination.

The Premier was not regarded as a man of particular force, but rather as the representative of a system. So far as known, his personal honor and integrity were never questioned.

GRAVE RIOTS FOLLOWED THE ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER

London, Oct. 22.—A wireless dispatch from Rome reports that there were grave riots in Vienna after the assassination of Count Stuergkh, which the police were powerless to quell.

The wireless also reports a renewal of the manifestations in Athens in favor of the United States intervening in behalf of the Greeks against the occupation of Athens and Piraeus by Entente allied forces.

AUSTRIAN CABINET MET AFTER THE PREMIER WAS MURDERED

Berlin, via Sayville, Oct. 22.—A Vienna dispatch to the Overseas News Agency says that the Austrian cabinet held a session after the assassination of Premier Stuergkh, presided over by the senior member, Baron Georgi, minister of national defense. In accordance with precedent, all the ministers will offer their resignations, but it is not expected they will be accepted.

The minister of the interior, Prince Hohenlohe-Schillingsfurst, who is on leave of absence, will return immediately to Vienna and will act as premier for the present.

Among those mentioned as possible successors of Count Stuergkh, are Prince Hohenlohe-Schillingsfurst, Baron von Beck, former premier, and Dr. Koerber.

"Berlin newspapers point out that the murderer of the premier was of unbalanced mind," the News Agency says.

TWENTY-ONE MEMBERS OF THE CREW OF THE LAKE STEAMER COLGATE DROWN

Big Vessel Went Down Friday Night, When Caught in a Storm in Lake Erie—Captain Grashaw, the Sole Survivor, Tells of the Disaster—Six Other Men Lost When Steamer Filter Sank—A Third Steamer Also Went Down.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 22.—Twenty-one members of the crew of the steamer James B. Colgate were drowned in Lake Erie Friday night when the Colgate, bound from Buffalo to Fort William, Ont., with coal, went down in a storm off Erie, Pa. The tragedy became known only today when Captain Walter Grashaw, of Cleveland, sole survivor, was picked up by a car ferry and taken to Conneaut, Ohio, after being afloat 34 hours on a life raft.

Captain Grashaw, who had been master of the Colgate for only two weeks, became unconscious soon after being picked up, but was able to tell part of the story of the disaster.

Nineteen of the crew, he said, were drowned when the big whaleback vessel foundered and two others, Second Engineer Harry Ossman, of Cleveland, and an unnamed coal passer, were washed from the life raft after exposure and exhaustion had rendered them helpless.

The Colgate went down the night of what has become known in marine circles as "Black Friday."

Six men were lost when the steamer Filer sank in Lake Erie Friday and on the same day the steamer Marshall F. Butters foundered, but its crew of 13 was saved.

Less than an hour after the Filer sank, the Colgate, by far the largest of the three lost vessels, went down. There was no wireless on the boat and nothing was learned of the tragedy until Captain Grashaw was rescued, half dead from his long fight for life.

A terrific gale was blowing when the Colgate sprang a leak early Friday night, Captain Grashaw said, and immediately it was seen that the vessel was doomed.

"We got the life raf treadly," he said, "just as the boat was so far down that the decks were awash. When she sank everybody jumped into the water. I went down and when I came up by some chance my hand touched the raft. I grabbed it and pulled myself on it just as Second Engineer Ossmann and the coal passer reached it. What happened to the others I don't know. I never saw them again.

"Then our awful fight began. Twice the raft turned completely over and we were washed loose, but managed to regain our holds. I must have been unconscious part of the time, for I can't remember distinguishing night and day while the storm plunged our raft.

"Firs tthe coal passer was washed away and hours later Ossmann, exhausted, disappeared. Then I remember fighting my way to the top time and again, as the raft plunged beneath me."

The Colgate was of 3,300 tons.

NOT TO CHANGE NAME OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Efforts Abandoned in the Convention at St. Louis.

Change Has Been Advocated for Several Years by a Faction of the Church—Many Names Have Been Suggested.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—Efforts to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal church have been abandoned in the convention in session here, church leaders advocating the change announced today. This follows the action of the House of Deputies of the convention yesterday adopting without a debate a title page for a new hymnal which reaffirmed the present name of the church.

For several years a change of name has been advocated by a faction in the church, upon the ground that the word "Protestant" in the title apparently allies it with those denominations having their origin with the reformation. The Protestant Episcopal church traces its history to the time of Christ, they assert.

Many names have been suggested, among them being the "American Episcopal church," the "Catholic church of America," the "American Catholic church" and the "Anglo-Catholic church."

"The time is not yet ripe to press the movement for a change of name," said Frederick C. Morehouse, of Milwaukee, one of the sponsors for the proposal.

The Episcopalian pulpits of St. Louis and neighboring communities were occupied today by members of the clerical delegations to the convention. The Right Rev. William Lawrence, Bishop of Massachusetts, in the official sermon of the general convention here today, made a stirring plea for social justice and urged a larger consideration for a man touched with "the spirit of socialism."

"Fair play is what the people demand from the church. There is a suspicion on the part of some that the church is composed of carefully housed people, who, in social life, wish to keep things as they are.

"There is a suspicion on the part of others that the church is here to support its own dogmas and opinions without regard for truth. Men of today want and will have truth and we must as a church give such a man a hearing."

NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT SYSTEM TO BENEFIT WOMEN AND GIRLS

Women's Organization Promise Aid to Labor Department.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Enthusiastic co-operation in the development, by the Department of Labor, of a national employment system for the benefit of women and girls has been promised by 21 women's organizations, having a membership of 6,000,000 it was announced today by Anthony Cainette, commissioner general of immigration. It is expected that the department soon will be able to put into effect plans perfected during last spring and summer by which it is hoped employment may be provided regularly for many thousands of working women and girls.

The movement was inaugurated with the adoption of resolutions on the subject at the convention here last January of the National Council of Women. At the conclusion of the convention, the president, Mrs. Philip North Moore, of St. Louis, conferred with officials of the Department of Labor and later communicated with the organizations affiliated with the council.

ANOTHER LYNCHING IN WAYNE IS PROBABLE?

Rumors of Attempt to Take Negro From Jail Last Night.

Was Brought From Greene County for Alleged Attempt to Commit Criminal Assault on Five-Year-Old White Girl.

(Special Star Telegram).

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 22.—If existing rumors in circulation in this city tonight have any foundation Wayne county may be the scene of another lynching between now and daylight, the result of an alleged attempt at criminal assault on a five-year-old white girl in Greene county early this morning by Willie Hines, a 17-year-old negro.

Sheriff Suggs and several armed men from Greene county arrived in Goldsboro late this afternoon with Hines, who was captured by a party of LaGrange citizens about 3 or 4 o'clock this afternoon, having made his way to the woods near that town.

The negro was discovered in his attempted crime by the father of the little girl, John Aswell, a wealthy farmer of Shine, Greene county, but the negro escaped before the parent could lay hands on him.

Some of the posse arriving here this afternoon say the crime was committed, while others state the negro had just enticed the little victim to the woods when her father accidently came upon them.

Wayne officials are preparing to take strenuous precautionary steps tonight to protect the negro, as rumor has it that another large body of men are forming from the neighborhood and section of the crime and are now on their way to Goldsboro for the purpose of "stringing up" the negro. The scene of the crime is where the negro Will Black, who is to be electrocuted, committed the crime which led to the lynching of his father.

EMMETT R. BROWN.

$700,000 RELIEF CARGO.

Will be Taken to Beirut, Syria, Aboard U. S. Naval Collier.

New York, October 22. — A cargo of foodstuffs and clothing valued at $700,000 will be sent probably this week aboard a United States navy collier to Beirut, Syria, for the relief of refugees, it was announced here tonight. The response of the public throughout the country to President Wilson's proclamation making yesterday and today Armenian-Syrian relief days, has been very generous, it was said.

The collier has been ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels to put in at New York, October 24. The foodstuffs to be sent to the suffering Armenians and Syrians will consist chiefly of rice, flour and crushed wheat.

MRS. CARRANZA ARRIVES

Wife of Mexican First Chief and Party at Nuevo Laredo.

Laredo, Texas, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Dona Virginia Carranza, wife of General Carranza, accompanied by her two daughters and Mrs. Alvaro Obregon, wife of the defacto government's minister of war, arrived at Nuevo Laredo today on a special train. The party will leave tomorrow for San Antonio. Alonzo B. Garrett, U. S. consul at Nuevo Laredo, has been instructed by the State Department to show the party every courtesy.

Christiana, via London, Oct. 22,—The Norwegian steamer Ronnaug, a vessel of 1,231 tons, has been torpedoed by a German submarine. Her crew was saved.

PRESIDENT WILSON IS CONFIDENT OF HIS RE-ELECTION

His Attitude is Marked With Optimism as the Campaign Approaches Its Last Stages.

HAS FIVE MORE SPEECHES

John M. Parker Has Yet Received No Proposal for a Joint Debate With Roosevelt.

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 22.—Optimism marks President Wilson's attitude towards his campaign for re-election as it reaches its last stages. Men who have discussed the situation with him said today that he is confident he will be re-elected.

The President has two more speeches here, and three trips on his schedule before election day. He probably will receive the returns at Shadow Lawn. Alton B. Parker will take luncheon with the President tomorrow and Jas. W. Gerard, ambassador to Germany, will lunch with him Tuesday.

JOHN M. PARKER RETURNS HOME AFTER SPEAKING TRIP

New Orleans, Oct. 22.—John M. Parker, Progressive nominee for vice-president, returned to his home today from his campaign tour in Ohio, New York and Massachusetts, where he urged members of his party to support President Wilson for re-election. Mr. Parker said tonight he had not received any proposal to engage in a joint debate in Connecticut with Theodore Roosevelt which dispatches from New York had said was laid before Chairman McCormick of the Democratic National Committee by Charles H. Treschmann, chairman of the Connecticut Progressive state committee. He declined to say whether he would accept such a proposition.

Mr. Parker will represent the Progressive party in a three-cornered debate to be held in this city Tuesday night, as a special feature of the Louisiana campaign. Congressman Depree will present the Democratic argument and Clarence S. Herbert, a prominent state politician, will speak for the Republicans.

CHAIRMAN WILLCOX HOLDS CONFERENCE WITH HUGHES

Montclair, N. J., Oct. 22.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, spent today quietly, dining this evening with William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who motored here from New York. The candidate took a long walk during the afternoon and was in conference with Chairman Willcox until a late hour tonight after which Mr. Willcox returned to New York.

Mr. Hughes' next campaign tour, which is expected to keep the nominee on the go until November 4, when he will close his campaign in New York City, will begin next Tuesday. He will go as far west as Indiana.

TO TRY CASES GROWING OUT OF KILLING OF WM. BLACK

Several Men to Be Placed on Trial at Galveston, Texas.

Galveston, Texas, Oct. 22.—Cases growing out of the killing of William Black, an anti-Catholic lecturer, of Bellaire, Ohio, will be called for trial here tomorrow. John Copeland, bank cashier of Marshall, Texas, where Black was killed on February 3, 1915, is expected to be tried first, George Ryan, next, and George Tier in November. Until a jury is completed the public will be excluded from the court room.

Because of the religious questions involved, the cases have engendered intense feeling and were transferred to this county for trial on a change of venue.

The principal witnesses for the state will be Sadie Black, the girl whom Black adopted in Pulaski county, Ark., a short time before he met his death, and who was present at the shooting, and Clarence F. Hall, of St. Paul, Minn., who was associated with Black and was present when he was killed.

Harry Winn and Frank O'Learly, of Marshall, who were indicted in connection with the killing, but were subsequently cleared in court, will testify for the defense.

AIR RAID ON SHEERNESS AT MOUTH OF THE THAMES RIVER

Four Bombs Were Dropped, But no Casualties are Reported.

London, Oct. 22.—A hostile aeroplane appeared today over the fortified seaport of Sheerness at the mouth of the Thames. Four bombs were dropped. No casualties have been reported officially. The following official account of the attack was given out:

"A hostile aeroplane approached Sheerness at about 1:45 p. m. today flying very high. Four bombs were dropped, three of which fell into the harbor. The fourth fell in the vicinity of a railway station and damaged several railway carriages.

"British aeroplanes went up and the raider made off in a northeasterly direction. No casualties have been reported."

London, Oct. 22.—An officials communication issued this evening says:

"A hostile seaplane was shot down and destroyed this afternoon by one of our naval aircraft. The machine fell into the sea. Judging by time, it probably was the seaplane which visited Sheerness today."

GLIMPSE OF RUSSIA'S TRANSFORMED ARMIES

There Is No Comparison With Conditions of a Year Ago

One General Describes the Change to Associated Press Correspondent as the "Difference Between Chaos and Order."

(Correspondence of Associated Press.)

At the Front with the Tenth Russian Army, Oct. 7.—It is only at the active front, well removed from the inaction and pessimism which poison the outlook from the large cities in Russia, that one is able to form a fair estimate of what Russia has accomplished during the past year in transforming a poorly equipped, inadequately munitioned and consequently dispirited army into a well ordered machine from which every trace of disorder and inefficiency has disappeared.

It is at first almost impossible to realize that the present organization, which compares favorably with that of any army in the field, has been built out of the wreck of last summer's disaster and that the same commanders who were then occupied with the difficult task of leading their crippled forces into a position of safety, are now confidently and eagerly speaking of an advance into the territory lost to them in last summer's campaign. A general who took part in the retreat from Warsaw and who commanded one of the divisions which heroically strove to delay the German advance, was asked by an Associated Press correspondent to compare the conditions which prevailed in the army a year ago with those of today.

"There is no comparison," answered the general, "Last year we had no ammunition, and we were in no condition to withstand the powerful and well organized offensive of the enemy. Only a small part of my division survived the continuous shell fire of the enemy. But today we are their equals. It is the difference between chaos and order."

On the broad lawn which flanked the divisional headquarters, a reserve regiment, which had been given a half holiday, were expending their excess energy in games of leap-frog, blind man's buff, three legged races and bizarre Russian dancing, done to the music of an impromptu soldiers' chorus, who sang the strange, half barbaric chants of their race. Although this regiment had just been relieved from work in the trenches the day before, the men were all in fine physical condition, and were well clothed and well fed, and showed no trace of having experienced any greater hardship than that of living in the open air and eating three wholesome meals a day. At a short distance from headquarters one could see the white tents of the soldiers gleaming through the open spaces cleared in the pine forest which covered a knoll which had been chosen as the best drained and most healthful spot for the sleeping quarters of the army. Faint streaks of smoke curled upward from the outdoor kitchens where dinner was being prepared. On returning from the trenches, each soldier had been given a bath and fresh linen, while the clothes he had been wearing were put through a disinfecting machine and laundered. The Russian soldier lives better, eats more, and enjoys a much more contented frame of mind than before the war.

The army owes the great part of the comforts which have been provided for it, to the Zemsky Soyuz, or union of town councils, which has been the chief manufacturer and distributing agent of all military supplies. Through the gigantic strides of organization and output which this union has made since the beginning of the war, it has been able not only to assist materially in the manufacture and purchase of guns and munitions, but to see that every part of the army is plentifully supplied with hospitals and medical apparatus, bath houses, clean linen and all of the comforts of life which now surround the army. After visiting numerous points along the western front, the correspondent found that the model conditions which at first might have seemed to belong only to a few exceptional localities which had been chosen for purposes of exhibition, applied universally to the whole area of the front.

It is to these tangible improvements in conditions that the less tangible but equally important moral of the Russian troops is due. The Russian soldier, illiterate and ignorant as he generally is, is not unresponsive to the currents of confidence or depression which run through the organism of an army. Last summer he was quite aware of the unfortunate circumstances which made retreat inevitable and impaired the efficiency of whatever unit to which he belonged. But he has now had an opportunity of seeing the conditions reversed. He knows that he is backed up by an organization in which no detail has been overlooked and he is eager to display his newborn efficiency.

CHICAGO SCHOOL PRINCIPAL GIVEN CHANCE TO LEAVE CITY

Confesses to Writing Letters Attacking Reputation of a Teacher.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Confronted by evidence that he had written more than 100 letters attacking the reputation of one of his women teachers, John Henry Heil, principal of the Morgan Park high school, after an all night grilling in the office of the board of education, confessed today that he had attempted to wreck the teacher's home to win her for his sweetheart. Heil's resignation was accepted and on promise to leave Chicago within 12 hours it was agreed that he should not be prosecuted.

Heil is 45 years old and has a wife and five children. The woman to whom he wrote, Mrs. Marie Moore, is 27 years old, and is married to Oliver C. Moore, dental student at Northwestern University. She was teaching to pay his tuition.

He confessed to writing letters attacking Mrs. Moore after she had demanded that he cease his attentions to her. They went to relatives and friends of hers, to the school board, to the mayor of Angola, Ind., where she formerly lived, to the ministers there, and even one to Mrs. Heil.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 22. — Edwin Young, aged 19, died today from internal injuries received in a football game here yesterday.

THEATRICAL

Starting off with the free admission of the ladies under the usual conditions at tonight's performance, the Victoria bids fair to break all records during the coming week with the return engagement of that great Victoria favorite organization, "The American Girl Company."

The American Girl Company will be well remembered from many standpoints. First was Lewis and Root, the greatest comedy team ever seen at the Victoria, and the former the very best blackface that Victoria audiences have ever had the pleasure of seeing; Lillian and Elsie Ziegler, two of the most talented singing and dancing girls who ever performed here, then there was Pauline Glennmar, presenting those fancy, whirlwind and acrobatic dances which went over so big. In fact, its an all-star aggregation, as you well remember.

This company, having been on the road for four years, have the largest repertoire of musical comedy shows of any company on the road and they could present a brand new and different show every day for two months and still have something left! So everything will be new this week but the faces, and you wouldn't want a single one of them changed—not by any means.

The opening bill for today and tomorrow will be "Ticket 44" a laughable musical comedy, with some of the biggest musical numbers ever heard from this organization.

Notable Offering at Grand.

Today the Grand makes a notable offering, presenting the very latest Paramount screen success, "The Reward of Patience," starring that dainty screen star, Louise Huff, with Lottie Packford in her support.

The story tells of the love affairs of a little Quaker girl, Patience, whose father has chosen a youth of the village as a husband for her. But the man's backwardness has prevented his even proposing to her when the arrival of a young engineer, Robert Penfield, diverts her interest. She falls in love with Penfield but he is engaged and, though attracted to Patience, does not make love to the girl. The sudden death of her father leaves Patience penniless and Penfield she learns is engaged to a society girl whom she realizes to be totally unworthy of him. The wedding day is a terrible ordeal for Patience and as the time passes, the arrival of a small Penfield still further tears at her heart strings as she sees the mother totally neglecting her child. Things go from bad to worse until Mrs. Penfield elopes with another man after discharging Patience and sending her back home penniless.

Of course, Penfield finds Patience in time, but it is not until they have both suffered deep sorrows. Among those who appear in support of Miss Huff in this picture are Lottie Pickford, John Bowers, Kate Lester and Adolph Menjou.

"The Primal Lure"—Royal.

Down under the water they went together, each with a death-like grip on the other's throat and a glittering knife in each hand. In a remarkable piece of photographic work in the latest Triangle play, "The Primal Lure," today's feature at the Royal, you see the terrible struggle for victory and life that takes place between William S. Hart and the savage Indian at the bottom of the lake. Then, the terrible fight between the traders and the Indians—one of the best battles you have ever seen on the screen. It is just an incident in that great Triangle Ince feature starring that dynamic actor, William S. Hart. There are others just as big moments of supreme interest and breath-taking tenseness—for instance, the attempted burning at the stake. The gods demanded a sacrifice and William S. Hart offered himself to be burned at the stake to appease the fiendish anger of the savages. You can see the flames licking up around his body and see the savages dancing around. But God sent rain and Hart was saved.

It is one of the greatest Triangle features in which this great actor has yet starred and he is surrounded by a notable all-star cast of Triangle favorites.

Big Bill at Bijou.

It is an exceptionally big bill that you will get at the Bijou today—one of the biggest and best programmes of the entire week, without a single doubt.

Of course the headliner for today will be the sixth thrilling chapter of that great patriotic serial thriller "Liberty—a Daughter of the U. S. A.," in which that fascinating film favorite, Marie Walcamp, is winning such distinguished fame for her dare-devil and brilliant work. Marie is one of the most enchanting personalities on the screen, and in "Liberty" she is easily excelling all past performances for spectacular film acting. In the current chapter on at the Bijou today, she makes some sensational incidents serve to draw you right to the edge of your seat, and with the finished work of Eddie Polo and Jack Holt in her support, it is easily two reels of the most thrilling motion pictures you have ever witnessed.

Another great two-reel feature is a brand new Essanay production "Money to Burn," and it stars those two great film artists, Lillian Drew and John Lorenz, with all-star supporting cast.

And still another, a great Tom Mix and Victoria Forde Western comedy drama—you know what to expect in this, and it is one of the best ones yet. A great five-reel show today.

"The Lilac Domino."

Andreas Dippel presents "The Lilac Domino," the biggest musical hit of a decade, at the Academy of Music, matinee and night, on next Saturday, October 28. With a cast which would be an attraction even in grand opera circles, a wealth of scenic effects, a chorus of lovely girls who dance and sing with all the vivacity and charm of happy youth in costumes almost regal in magnificent and up-to-the-minute in style, and a quintet of funmakers who draw forth laughs at the rate of two to a minute, this production is the event of the season. Every one goes to see it and hear it, and not to have seen it at least once is to be confessedly behind the times. It charmed New York, Boston and Chicago, for an entire season last year and drew crowded houses nightly. Its twenty brilliant song hits are being whistled and sung in all ranks of society wherever it has been presented. Art critics and people in general are talking of the wonderful scenery, and especially of the sunset scene in the second act, where an electrical device operated behind the curtain, not only produces rippling waves but sunlight glittering over the water and the afternoon brightness fading into twilight of early evening and into night. Theatre parties were nightly features, during the production in New York, Boston and Chicago and prominent society leaders engaged boxes for the entire engagement, revelling in the seductive charm of the music, the brilliant comedy and the lyrical score. Among the most noted artists of the cast are Bradford Kirkbride, foremost in the ranks of light opera singers; Yvonne Darle, with the highest, clearest, sweetest voice among sopranos of the day; Marie Hamilton, a charming sprite with a vivacity and vocal attraction that is equalled by her physical perfections; Joseph Carey, who compels laughter whether he dances or sings or talks or simply stands still and looks natural—a rare type of comedian; Edward Crawford, Allan Ramsey, Andre Corday, Archibald Gilchrist, and a score of others. Some of the great song hits are "Song of the Chimes," sung by Mr. Kirkbride and Miss Darle to the accompaniment of Silver Bells; "Lilac Domino," "True Love Will Find a Way," "Ladies' Day," "What Every Woman Knows," "What Is Done You Never Can Undo," and others.

The matinee prices will range from 50 cents to $1.50. The night prices will be from 50 cents to $2. Tickets for both performances will go on sale Friday morning at 9 o'clock at Elvington's pharmacy.

"The Girl He Couldn't Buy."

Wholesome fun and thrilling melodrama are combined in "The Girl He Couldn't Buy," by Sumner Nichols, which is to hold the boards at the Academy of Music on next Monday, October 30. The leading role is that of Hope Nelson, a beautiful and refined New York girl, who has suddenly been reduced to penury by the death of her father, and finds herself in a tenement rooming house with all kinds of pitfalls surrounding her. A wealthy and self-confident rascal, who was her father's business partner and brought him to financial ruin, attempts to get her into his power. In her desperate difficulty, a protector appears in the person of a professional cracksman. The unique manner in which the plot is worked out to its happy ending is characterized by a well known critic as "distinctly a dramatic triumph." Prices will range from 50 cents to $1. Tickets will go on sale Friday morning at 9 a. m. at Elvington's pharmacy.

The Smart Set.

Always justly noted for the completeness of the productions, "The Smart Set" claims to have outdone themselves in the way they have staged and costumed their new musical comedy "How Newtown Prepared" headed by the well known colored comedian Whitney & Tutt, and which is booked at the Academy of Music on Tuesday, October 31. Nothing finer scenically or artistically has been seen upon the American stage in years than the spectacle which will greet the theatregoers when they view this latest efforts of the past. Tickets will go on sale Saturday morning at Elvington's pharmacy.

Petrograd, Oct. 22 (via London).—The new offensive of Field Marshal Von Mackensen, in Dobrudja, has caused the Russian and Rumanian troops to retire slightly, the war office announced today. An attack by Austro-German forces on the Russian lines along the Narayuvka river, southeast of Lemberg, resulted in violent fighting yesterday, the statement says.

GERMAN PROTESTS AGAINST ACTION TAKEN BY NORWAY

Opposes Embargo on Submarines of the Belligerent Powers.

Christiana, via London, Oct. 22.—The German minister has presented to the Norwegian government a note protesting against Norway's embargo on the submarines of belligerent countries. The cabinet held a meeting and discussed the note, but its decision has not been made public. The press unanimously supports the government in its right to issue such an ordinance, as Sweden has already done.

London, Oct. 22.—Dr. Alfer Zimmerman, the German under secretary for foreign affairs, is quoted by the Norwegian correspondent of the Copenagen Aftenposten, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch, as declaring that the German note to the Norwegian government is a serious one, contending that Norway's action conflicts with paragraph 13 of The Hague convention, and is incompatible with strict neutrality, and, furthermore that Germany will not calmly submit to such action.

During the continuance of the negotiations, the correspondent adds, many German submarines are operating off the Norwegian coast and are stopping and examining vessels leaving Norwegian harbors.

TWO INJURED IN RIOT

Mine Workers Attack Police After Arresting One of Their Number.

Pittsburg, Oct. 22.—Two persons were injured and many shots were fired in a riot which occurred while John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, was addressing at Creighton, near here today, a meeting of bituminous coal miners, who are on a strike there. The trouble started when five special policemen enter a crowd and arrested a miner. Several hundred men charged the policemen, spirited the prisoner away and forced them to retreat. Both of the injured will recover.

Two Surprises In Eastern Football

VICTORIES WON BY PITTSBURG AND PENNSYLVANIA WERE UNEXPECTED—NO SERIOUS FORM UPSETS

New York, Oct. 22.—Though Eastern football teams came through the week end games without serious form upsets, two distinct surprises were sprung—Pittsburg's overwhelming defeat of the big Syracuse eleven and Pennsylvania's rise to unexpected heights in defeating Penn State. Harward, Princeton, Army, Colgate and Brown had easy victories, but Cornell, Pennsylvania, Georgetown, Navy, Union and Tufts, while victorious, found their rivals formidable. The results of the day's play were to bring about a sharp division between those elevens which romped through weak opponents and those forced to fight for every yard gained.

Syracuse's defeat was caused by the sacrifice of speed for weight and the sprinting attack of Glenn Warner's light eleven as entirely too much for them. The addition of Howard Baker, the all-round athlete, fresh from the Mexican border, was a decided factor in Pennsylvania's victory, and the new training system installed by Coach Golwell, apparently is rounding the Quaker eleven into a powerful machine.

Neither Cornell nor Navy showed anything remarkable in attack or defense but their spirit of steadiness under attack promises well.

Georgetown's machine was too smooth running and well balanced for Dartmouth, and while the Green fought hard, it was never able to check the Southerners. Tufts, with its Harvard victory as a standard, found Boston College a hard team to beat.

Princeton and Harvard found LaFayette and the Massachusetts Aggies easy. Both used many substitutes. The victories of Colgate, Brown and the Army must be placed in the same category, since neither Trinity, Rhode Island nor Williams had an attack or defense to test the winners.

In the West the race for the big nine championship narrowed down to four teams—Minnesota, Northwestern, Wisconsin and Ohio State—as a result of Saturday's games. Northwestern's 10 to 0 triumph over Chicago,—its first in 15 years—and Ohio State's victory over Illinois were the big surprises.

Taken as a whole, Saturday's games demonstrated that both the forward pass and the goal from the field are to be permanent factors in the scoring again this season.

TRINITY CLASS BASKETBALL SEASON IS SOON TO OPEN

Trinity College, Oct. 22.—With the opening of the Trinity class basketball season only three days off, the various class teams are working hard in order to get off in big shape. Although the teams have not been selected, the squads are already showing mid-season form. Captain Mayes of the Seniors has been out every day with his team, and speaks very encouragingly of prospects. He will play center, and should be a strong card for his team in view of the fact that he has had a year's experience as sub-center on the 'varsity. Earl Long, captain of the Junior team, has likewise had 'varsity experience at forward. This team made a strong run last year and ought to be a pennant contender during the coming season. The Sophomores are rounding into big league form since the return of Captain Edgerton to the game. Edgerton will direct the team from his old position at guard. The Freshme nhave elected R. G. Groom as captain. He played good ball with the Guilford College team last year and has been the outstanding feature of the Freshman club in the early practices.

HARVARD FOOTBALL SQUADS RESTRICTED BY QUARANTINE

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 22.—The Harvard football first and second squads were forced to cancel all week-end visits, and instead they passed today quietly within sight of the university obeying the restrictions imposed by the infantile paralysis quarantine.

Edwin Glan, the sub-player, whose illness at the Stillman Infirmary led to the quarantining of the other men of the squads, was said tonight to be in better condition than was expected, although a slight paralysis of the legs has developed.

New Haven, Conn., October 22. — Charles M. Sheldon, left tackle on the Yale football team, will be unable to play any more this season, it was officially announced tonight, on account of an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Fight For Title Narrowing Down

STRUGGLE FOR SOUTHERN FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP NOW CENTERED WHERE S. I. A. A. IS SUPREME.

Atlanta, Oct. 22.—With the defeat of Virginia by Georgia and of North Carolina by George Tech, the battle for the football championship of the South yesterday was virtually moved to the territory where the Southern Inter-collegiate Athletic Association is supreme. A number of elevens still are undefeated in this section, while Washington and Lee is the only remaining representative of the Virginia-Carolina section.

Auburn, Vanderbilt, Georgia Tech, George, Alabama, Tennessee and Louisiana State are the leading contenders in the Southern Inter-collegiate Athletic Association race. All have shown themselves to be strong although Alabama a week ago lost one of its best men when Dexter Hovater was put out for the season with a broken leg, and yesterday Georgia Tech suffered a similar lose with the breaking of a bone in the ankle of Jim Sentor, who was playing his fourth and last year of collegiate football.

The stars in yesterday's play were Dezendorf, in the Virginia-Georgia contest at Charlottesville, Folger, for North Carolina, Strupper and Spence, for Georgia Tech, in the Tar Heel-Yellow Jacket game here, and Green, the Alabama quarter in the Alabama-Florida struggle at Gainesville.

Dezendorf's recovery of a fumble in the first period was largely responsible for Georgia's victory over Virginia while Folger was almost the sole ground gainer for North Carolina against Tech. Most of his gains yesterday were made almost without interference. His puts averaged close to fifty yards and in most instances placed so that no Tech man was under them. Strupper carried the ball more than fifty yards for the winning touchdown for the Yellow Jackets.

Georgia's performance against Virginia yesterday has raised the stock of the Cracker aggregation considerably, as the Crackers played in this game without the service of "Bull" Garmany, one of the best centers in the South, and J. Reynolds and McConnell, generally considered stars at carrying the ball. With these men back in the lineup, the Crackers believe they have an excellent chance to defeat the Navy next week, Auburn on November 4 and Georgia Tech Noverber 18.

Vanderbilt's performance against Mississippi in rolling up 35 points during the first period without the services of Quarterback Curry and of Carman, the big guard, was merely a continuation of the Commodores' heavy scoring performances.

Auburn continued its earlier season performance of running up good sized scores this week, when it defeated Clemson on Friday.

Alabama, with its shifted line-up, showed itself to still be in the struggle by winning over Florida, while Tennessee's strong aggregation soundly trounced South Carolina, keeping the Volunteers in the running. Sewanee generally has been counted out by virtue of its scoreless tie with Kentucky State which a week ago was overwhelmed by Vanderbilt.

Washington and Lee comes to Atlanta next week for its first Southern game of the season against a strong team and much interest is being manifested in what the Generals will be able to do against Georgia Tech. This and the North Carolina A. & M. game at Raleigh on November 30 are the only big Southern games the Virginia team plays.

AMERICAN ATHLETES TAKE THREE OF THE FOUR EVENTS

Christiana, via London, Oct. 22.—American athletes won thre eof the four events in the athletic games here today, Joe Loomis being first in the 100-metre dash and Bob Simpson first in the 110-metre high hurdles. The American athletes won three of the relay. Ted Meredith lost the 800-metre run to J. Bolin, of Sweden, by one-tenth of a second.

Gloomy weather marked the games. The temperature was below freeing and the track was frozen hard.

NICK COLLINS STILL AT LARGE.

Jones County Man Wanted for Murder Not Yet Apprehended.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 22.—Jones county authorities admit that they are but little nearer to apprehending Nick Collins, who several days ago is alleged to have murdered Abraham Collins, a distant relative, than they were just after the shooting, when the slayer vanished. There is one slight clue, however: a well based idea is had as to the general direction in which Collins went. Whiskey, and not the land dispute which some persons think was the cause of the crime, was responsible for the homicide, in the opinion of Sheriff Hargett, of Jones. The slayer was a moonshiner, "there isn't a bit of doubt about that," according to Hargett, and "he probably thought the victim had informed against him. With the land boundary dispute as a new incentive, he killed Abraham Collins."

M'ADOO WILL COME TO RALEIGH ON TUESDAY

Will be Accompanied by Other Members of Farm Loan Board.

Richmond Delegation May Urge Establishment of Farm Loan Bank at Raleigh—Prize Babies at the Fair.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and the other members of the Federal Board for the establishment of the twelve Federal Farm Loan banks in the different regions of the country, are to arrive here Tuesday morning at 5:10 o'clock. On the same train will probably come a special delegation from Richmond, Va., on the mission of urging upon this board that Raleigh be designated the location of the bank for this Southeastern section of the country. The board comes especially to give a hearing here Tuesday in the matter of both the boundaries of this federal loan bank region and as to the location of the bank for the region, Raleigh being one of the chief competitors for this bank.

Delegations are expected to be here Tuesday from Charlotte and a number of other points in effort to get the bank for their respective localities. Members of the board other than Mr. McAdoo are Charles E. Lobdell, Herbert Quick, H. W. Flannagan, George W. Morris and Capt. W. S. Smith. The Raleigh Chamber of Commerce is preparing a round of entertainment and sightseeing for the visitors.

Prize Winning Babies.

During every day of the State Fair this week there was an almost constant stream of proud parents bringing their babies to the Better Babies booth, where there were experts on duty all the time making examinations and grading the children and at the same time advising the parents as to any defects and best means of eliminating thes edefects. There was a splendid gold medal offered for the best baby and this, it is announced, was won by little Louise Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Jones, of Raleigh, who has the fine record of a perfect score in every respect.

The second best award went to Elizabeth Hudnell, of Washington, N. C., whose score was 99. Other winners of awards were Virginia Cameron, of Cameron, and Charles Garland Green, of Corinth.

Improve Your Figure With a Front Lacing Gossard Corset

YOU see, in 15 minutes after your Gossard fitting, an immediate improvement in your figure, regardless of your height, slenderness, weight, or present good figure lines.

Actresses of note, the skeptical, critical ones whose wardrobes cost small fortunes, prefer Gossards. They wear no other corset. Athletic directors, nurses and social leaders wear them—will wear no others. The greatest surgeons and obstetricians actually prescribe them.

All because they improve your figure—defeat old age—retain youthful lines and impart that subtle and unseen; yet very noticeable beauty to any woman, without which she is indeed poor.

A world-wide sale and a recognition by the foremost designers point to but one thing—their superiorty as a garment which is fundamental in every woman's scheme of dress.

A fitting in any Gossard model, especially designed for your figure type, is yours for the request. Be fitted soon (tomorrow) and see the marked improvement in your figure.

Special models at $2.00, $2.50, $3.50, $5.00 and up.

DR. F. C. BROWN AT ELON.

Gives Lecture to Students on "North Carolina Folklore."

Elon College, N. C., Oct. 22. — Dr. Frank C. Brown, secretary-treasurer of the N. C. Folklore Society, who has already collected a considerable amount of folklore material for a volume to be published by the Folklore Society, delighted and charmed his audience here Friday evening with a lecture on "North Carolina Folklore." Rarely ever has a speaker received such hearty sympathy from his audience here as did Dr. Brown.

At the close of his lecture Miss Ava L. B. Dodge, head of the Music Department, sang most charmingly and effectually four of these folklore ballads.

Dr. Brown held his audience an hour and one-half without any abatement of the high tension of interest which he secured in the very beginning of his lecture. At the close of his lecture numerous members of the audience gathered around him to congratulate him. Many of these friends assured him of folklore material within their knowledge.

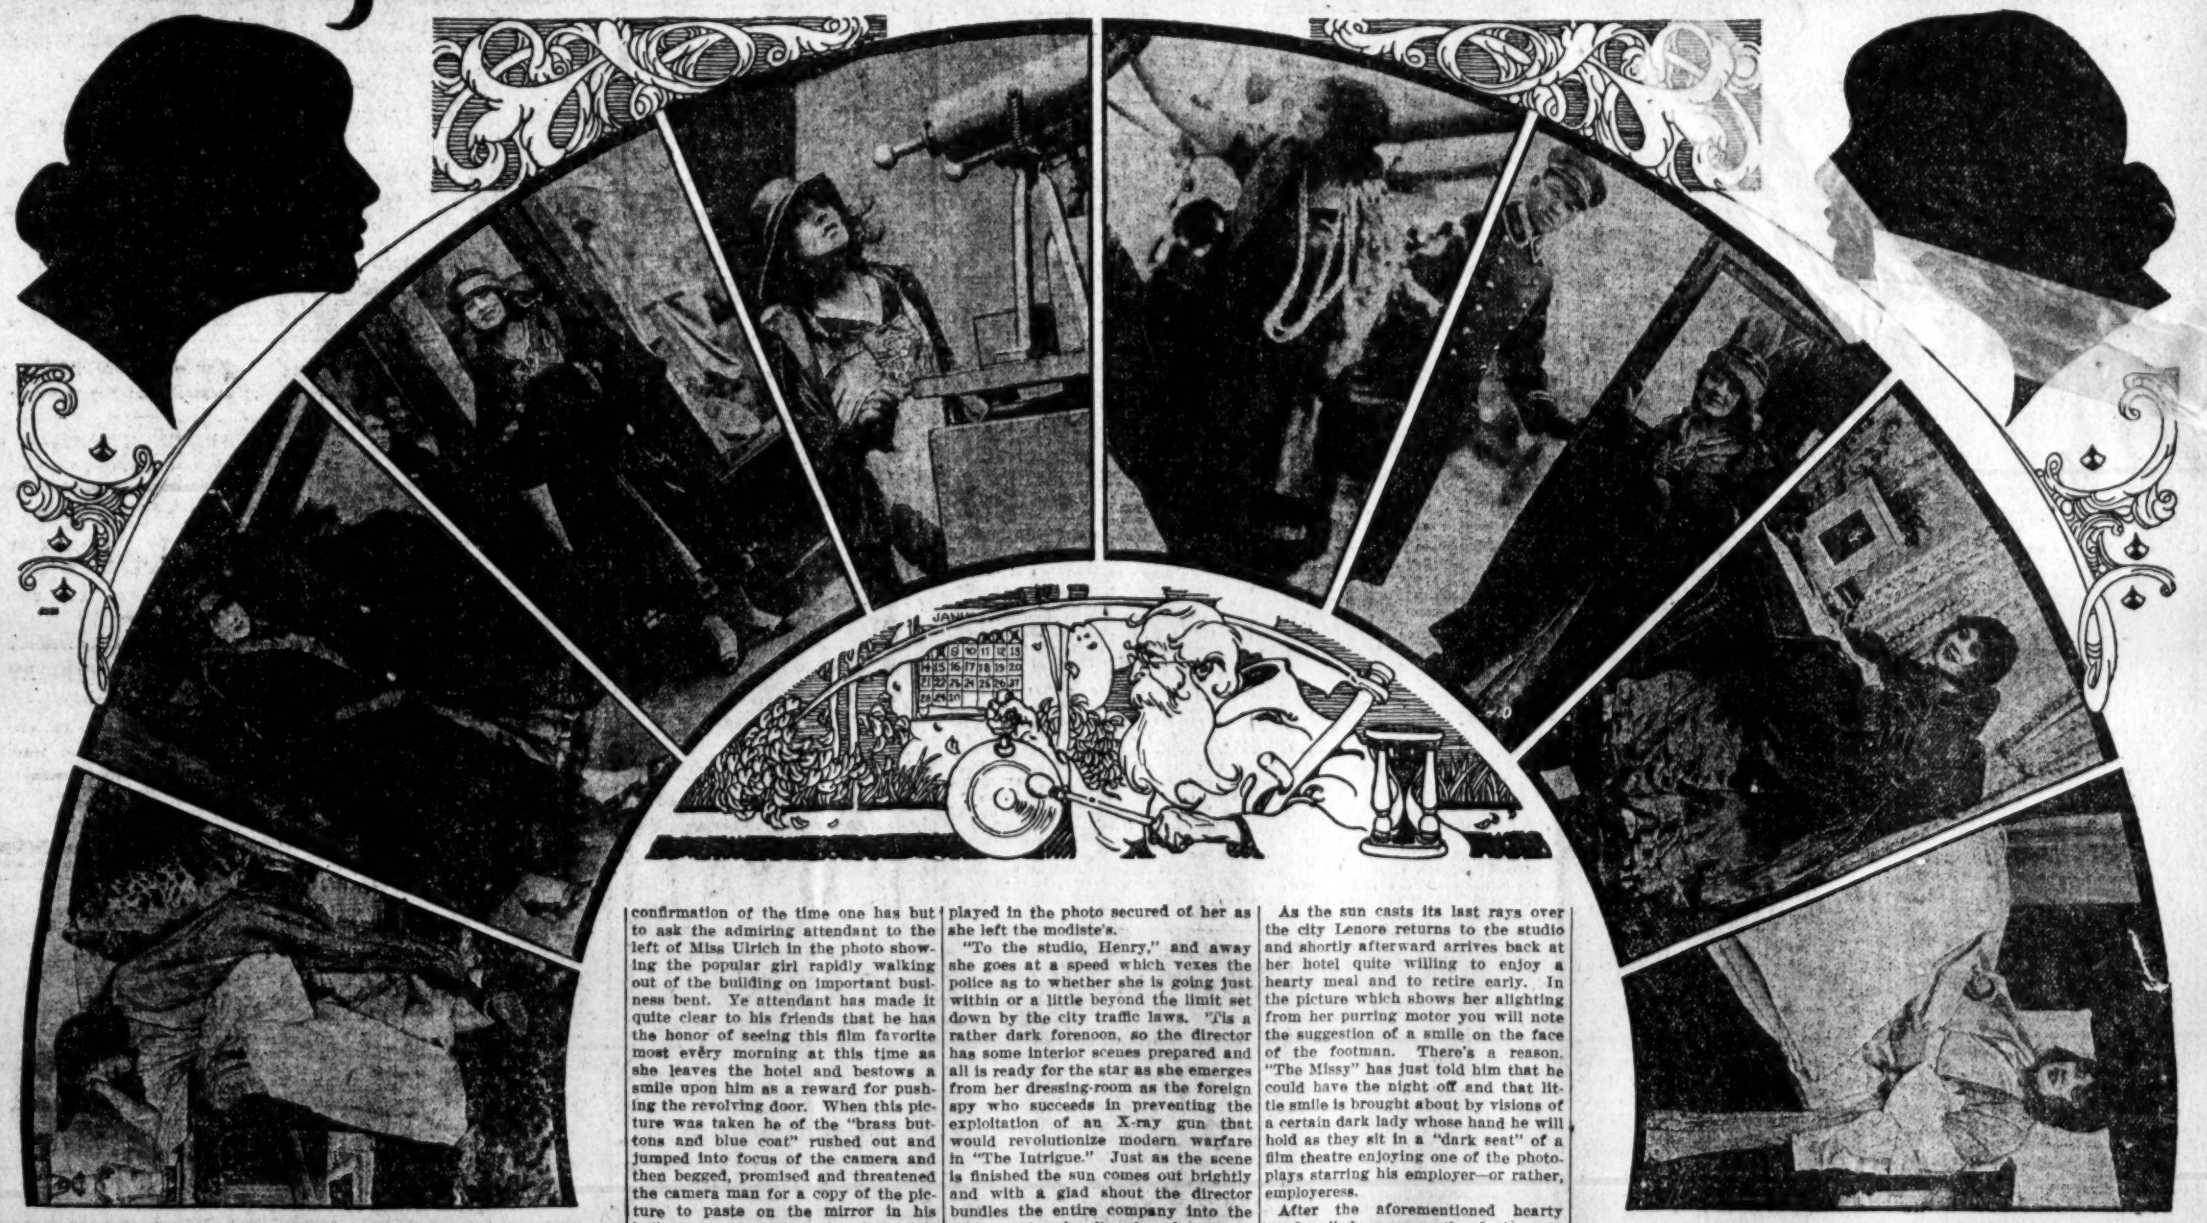
A Day In The Life Of A Screen Star



By PETER GRIDLEY.

'Tis seven-fifteen in the A. M. and the fair Lenore Ulrich awaits her breakfast in her luxurious suite at the Claridge. The maid has just given the order to the chef and here we see Lenore in her morning gown delving into Ibsen's "Pillars of Society" while she waits for the glad tidings of "Breakfast is ready" to be announced. Lenore, being perfectly familiar with the service of all de luxe hotels, expects to be half through the book before her maid makes this announcement.

At nine o'clock I snapped Miss Ulrich as she was leaving her hotel. For confirmation of the time one has but to ask the admiring attendant to the left of Miss Ulrich in the photo showing the popular girl rapidly walking out of the building on important business bent. Ye attendant has made it quite clear to his friends that he has the honor of seeing this film favorite most every morning at this time as she leaves the hotel and bestows a smile upon him as a reward for pushing the revolving door. When this picture was taken he of the "brass buttons and blue coat" rushed out and jumped into focus of the camera and then begged, promised and threatened the camera man for a copy of the picture to paste on the mirror in his hall-room.

A brisk drive up Fifth Avenue in an immense gasoline consumer brings our heroine to the portals of her dressmaker's. After going through the joys of a fitting or two she makes the Madame happy for the day by passing over a generous check on account—perhaps this has something to do with the smiles evident in the door-way displayed in the photo secured of her as she left the modiste's.

"To the studio, Henry," and away she goes at a speed which vexes the police as to whether she is going just within or a little beyond the limit set down by the city traffic laws. 'Tis a rather dark forenoon, so the director has some interior scenes prepared and all is ready for the star as she emerges from her dressing-room as the foreign spy who succeeds in preventing the exploitation of an X-ray gun that would revolutionize modern warfare in "The Intrigue." Just as the scene is finished the sun comes out brightly and with a glad shout the director bundles the entire company into the motors and rushes it on board an ocean liner which had been engaged for that day. Here, still in the role of the spy and disguised as an emigrant, she partakes of considerable excitement in the way of a fight with an over-zealous actor portraying the brutal alien, together with many other interest-compelling, though for the actress, nerve tiring scenes.

As the sun casts its last rays over the city Lenore returns to the studio and shortly afterward arrives back at her hotel quite willing to enjoy a hearty meal and to retire early. In the picture which shows her alighting from her purring motor you will note the suggestion of a smile on the face of the footman. There's a reason. "The Missy" has just told him that he could have the night off and that little smile is brought about by visions of a certain dark lady whose hand he will hold as they sit in a "dark seat" of a film theatre enjoying one of the photo-plays starring his employer—or rather, employeress.

After the aforementioned hearty meal, milady peruses the day's mail. Offers of marriage from wealthy men, information on how to become a film star in a week, advice to the lovelorn—all receive the personal attention of this girl. Just about when her little hand begins to feel as if it weighed a ton, Lenore calls her secretary and "passes the buck" of answering letters over to her. However, nothing is mailed without the approval and signature of the popular one.

While friend secretary prepares answers to the remaining letters Lenore hies herself to her downy downy and with a little "baby-doll" tucked under each arm, proceeds to enjoy herself with "Songs from the Garden of Kama" by Lawrence Hope. After a row, while that little dream-man feller comes around and wafts his spell over our fair Miss who readily yields to his influence as she is not a believer of utilizing the mid-night oil, particularly when there are big scenes to be enacted at the Morosco-Pallas studios for the Paramount Program on the mor-

TOP O' THE MORNING.

If we cannot be a lighthouse let us be a tallow candle.

—DWIGHT L. MOODY.

"There's a reason" why Wilson is gaining and Hughes is losing. "The record is the reason."

Four years is long enough to give any party a chance to do something for the people. Just look what the Democrats have done in less than four years!

Don't bet on elections. It is contrary to good public morals and there isn't any more common sense in it than in putting up money on fly loo—betting upon which lump of sugar a fly will light upon. Besides that, some sage has said that "betting is a fool's argument."

The Republicans are now saying that they could have been depended upon for financial legislation. Oh, yes, we know it, for they have been depended upon ever since 1873 and we depended upon them until 1912. Yes, Old Top, the Republican party surely can be depended upon, even if you depend upon it for fifty years—maybe a hundred if you were to be here that long.

While the Republicans were calamity howling and betting that the wolves were coming to get us, the Democrats discovered a way to mobilize the country's finances so as to prevent panics or even money stringency in any portion of the country. Owing to that and other constructive and wise legislation, all Democrats can amplify David B. Hill's exclamation and say, "I am a Democrat and proud of it, you bet."

President Wilson stands on the record of his achievements in accordance with the Baltimore platform and those achievements are paramount over the mere planks of a platform. If every plank was not carried out, those in which the people were directly concerned were. Even more was done by the Wilson administration than was promised in the platform and the things done have been even more pronounced in their benefit to the people than the platform as a whole.

The Jacksonville Times-Union begins an editorial disquisition: "Barnum said the American people liked to be humbugged. Carlyle said the average man would be amazed to learn with how little wisdom the world is governed." Well, nobody disputes Barnum but the people, and nobody disputes Carlyle except the governing class. We can trace nearly all our problems and difficulties and woes to humbuggery in general and especially to the humbuggery of so-called statesmanship. The progressive principles in government are called radical and they are shunned by some so-called statesmen because they fear the people prefer to stick to th same old rut in which they were left by their honored ancestry.

That there are many women in North Carolina who have real literary talent is amply demonstrated in the initial number of "Everywoman's Magazine," which has just been issued. The editor of this interesting periodical is Nina Holland Covington, who has had considerable experience as a writer and who has written many poems of much merit. This magazine, while appealing especially to the women, contains articles of appealing interest to every member of the family. Its aim, as expressed by the editor, is to furnish the women of this State a medium of expression for their club activities, charitable work, literary efforts, and, last but not least, to interest and inspire them to nobler tasks. It is neatly printed on book paper, contains many attractive illustrations, and embraces 60 pages of reading matter. It will be published once a month at Raleigh, and the subscription price is $1 a year.

SUPPORT WILSON AND GODWIN

A vote for Representative Hannibal L. Godwin on the 7th of November will be a vote for President Wilson. Godwin has been loyal to the Democratic party in his faithful and earnest support of the people's President, for he belongs to the team workers who have aided Wilson in scoring achievements for the people. He has been true to the trust confided in him by the people of the Sixth district and he has not been wanting when the cause of Democracy had to be upheld at Washington. In a notable measure, our Democratic representative did his duty to his people and accordingly shared in the triumphs secured for them by President Wilson and Congress. It is our duty to support Wilson just as Godwin supported him, and it is our duty to support Godwin so he can support Wilson for us at Washington.

All Democrats in the Sixth district and all voters who wish to approve the Wilson administration should not fail to vote for Godwin. He is our party's nominee for representative and we want this district to be represented by a Democrat who is in close touch with the President's masterful plans to carry on this government for the people. A vote for his opponent, Mr. A. L. McCaskill, Republican, will be a vote against Wilson, for any Republican in Congress will oppose the President and support the sinister interests which are enemies of the people. A voter who scratches or a voter who stays at home will help the chances of a Republican who has attacked Wilson because of what he has done for the people.

It is well for all of us to remember this and vote enthusiastically for the congressman who has stood by Wilson and whose support of Wilson in the future is vital to the interests of the people. The Sixth district wants to give a good account of herself on the 7th of November and the only way to help her to do it is to vote for Wilson and Godwin and down every Republican opponent of the Democratic President who has saved our country for the people. The Republicans propose to save it, too, but the people are fully aware that they would have it for the plutocrats who are the partners of Republicanism.

We want to put the finishing touch on Republicanism and the exploiters of the people and so it is necessary to bury them so deep that they will never be able to scratch out. In order to do that it will take the votes of the people, the work of Wilson and the support of Godwin.

Our duty lies directly before us and we ought to do it with the great earnestness of a people who are grateful for the constructive achievements that Wilson has won for the people very largely by means of the support of North Carolina's Democratic congressmen.

EASY PAPER ECONOMY

The Raleigh Times is moved to discuss this subject in a pertinent and striking way, because the United States Health Service has notified recipients of its publications heretofore sent free of postage, that such of its bulletins and printed matter as have been sent broadcast in great volume will no longer be sent out except upon request. The Health Service publications really may be worth their circulation in promoting the health of the American people, but there is no doubt that tons of them are sent to people who immediately throw them into the waste basket. However, the Times approves the saving aimed at, but it points out a broader field for the exercise of economy at Washington.

Our valued contemporary goes on to say that the step taken by the Health Service "is a measure of economy that might be adopted to good effect by every other department and public agency in Washington." There is not the slightest doubt as to that, for it would not only save paper but lessen the transportation burden involved in the transportation of tons of matter that has little or no direct connection with the public service. For instance, the Times remarks:

"Especially could the country survive if there should be a stop of the scandalous practice of printing speeches by request and then franking copies of them through the mails by the ton. It is necessary that the departments issue their bulletins and papers, and it is proper that they should be available to all persons who are interested. When such papers are sent broadcast to thousands on thousands of waste-baskets, the waste in paper alone is something tremendous, not considering the unnecessary labor and the expense of the mail service. When it comes to afflicting the people with the extended remarks of the gentlemen from Gabaloosa, if they should be sent only when asked for, enough white paper could be saved to run a dozen county organs."

Included in all this are tons of voluminous and worthless public documents, but worst of all there are the campaign documents that politicians of all political parties work off on Uncle Sam's printing system, not to mention the various publications that senators and representatives frank all over the country at government expense. There certainly ought to be some limit by law as well as conscience upon the franking privilege. "Riding a free horse to death" isn't in it with the abuse of a privilege not at all intended for many of the uses to which it is put.

The Philadelphia Inquirer (Rep.) asserts: "Hughes has views." Well, he certainly ought to have them, because he has refused all this time to let the people have any of them.

SHIPPING HOGS BY THE CARLOAD

Shipping hogs by the carload at this season of the year indicates how the livestock industry has grown in Wilmington's tributary territory. The adaptabilities for hog raising in this section already have been realized by the farmers, but many people have little conception of the growth of the livestock industry or of the immense possibilities in it for sustaining local packing house enterprises. By hearty encouragement and intelligent promotion, this section is not only capable of producing all its own pork and beef at the very lowest cost, but it has all the resources and advantages for adding to the supply of a nation-wide demand, not to mention at all the immense export demand that has resulted in high prices for our consumers.

Several counties adjacent to Wilmington have been shipping hogs and cattle by the carload for several years, but with the establishment of the Carolina Packing Company's plant in Wilmington, this city will provide a near-by stock yard market and make it possible for a livestock industry of the greatest proportions. Within Wilmington's tributary territory, there are several resourceful counties in South Carolina. There is Horry county, for instance, with all the ideal advantages of this entire section for hog raising. That county already is shipping hogs by the carload, as witness this from the Horry Herald, Conway, under date of October 19:

"A carload of fat hogs was shipped from this point to Richmond, Va., last week by Mr. D. V. Richardson, from his farms at Bucksport. The number contained in the car was sixty-six, all of them being the finest porkers ever seen in this section of the state, and the finest livestock of the kind ever raised in this county and shipped to a distant market. They averaged from 150 to 250 pounds in weight, and were all of the Berkshire breed. The lot netted more than one thousand dollars and resulted in a good profit to the owner. Mr. Richardson has 125 head more that will be ready for shipment between now and March 1st, 1917. He intends to ship them to the same market. All of the hogs contained in the car last week were less than one year old.

"These facts are published for a double reason and to serve a double purpose. First as a news item showing the opening of a new industry for this section of the state and that there is money to me made by farmers in other ways than by raising cotton, tobacco, irish potatoes, or strawberries. And in the second it is intended to show others what still others are doing and point the way to new opportunities on the part of those who are not now engaged in this evidently profitable industry. What one man succeeds at can also be accomplished by another of equal ability, once he has the knowledge of the situation."

What the Herald says is both interesting and true, and it only piles up the emphasis which The Star has laid upon the truly immense possibilities in the livestock industry. It is the one big opportunity of this section and we ought not to be so slow in realizing it and realizing upon it.

Shipping hogs at this season shows the advantages of a near-by packing house for livestock raisers in this section. Hogs are now fat, and since there is a stockyard market in Richmond, hog raisers in this territory can ship them at once without incurring the expense of feeding and keeping them up till the necessary cold weather comes to make local slaughtering possible. The greatest profit in hogs is to market them as soon as they are fat, without the extra expense of giving them attention till hog killing weather shall come for country slaughtering.

When the Republicans can't get around a good thing that the Democrats have done, they say the Republicans saw it first. Huh! The fellow who sees it first, and lets Johnny on the Spot beat him to it is too darn slow to be trusted. The follow who gets it first is the one to be depended upon to deliver the goods. Bedads, the Republicans talk about it and never do it, but the Democrats do it first and then bring up the conver-sation, as ole Red Buck Bryant would say.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Wilmington said she would raise $5,000 for the Wilson campaign fund and she is doing it. The $4,000 mark has been passed and the home stretch is being rapidly shortened.—Charlotte Observer.

Reports coming to New Bern from Kinston are to the effect that the chamber of commerce of that city is agitating the operation of a boat line between that place and New Bern and that the merchants and business men are giving strong backing in this matter. There is not the slightest doubt but that this line, if it could be put into operation, would prove to be a paying venture, for the operators. A line of steamers that could navigate the shallow waters found at points between the two cities, could stop at intermediate points, places remote from the railroads and deliver freight at a cost far below that charged by the railroads and the additional cost of transportation from the railway stations to the point of final destination.—New Bern Sun-Journal.

Here's Hugo Muensterberg, of Harvard, out in a statement that he knows "from reliable sources that Russia is out of joint, is half bankrupt, is starving and will be ready for a separate peace before spring. The result is to be an alliance between Germany, Austria, Russia, and Japan." In all the realm of war prognostications, Hugo occupies a unique niche, being, perhaps, the only living man able to draw pay from an institution of learning in a neutral nation and hear of everything that happens among the belligerents before the belligerents themselves are informed. Madam Thebes, who lives closer to the scene of action and has much more experience in sooth saying, has so far found prophesy futile as regards the world war. It will be interesting to see what a Cambridge, Mass., German psychologist will be able to do with an equation so quadratic.—Raleigh Times.

With the beginning of 1917 the Farm Land Loan Bank system provided by the Democratic party will be in operation. Next Tuesday the Federal Farm Loan Board will meet in Raleigh for a hearing on the matter of the farm land loan district in which North Carolina is to be placed, and to get the data on conditions so as to select the city in which the land loan bank of the district will be located. Both Raleigh and Charlotte are actively in the contest to win the location, with perhaps other cities in the State to present their claims. There is because of the passage of the bill providing for loans on farm lands great interest both in the matter of long time loans as provided for by the new law, and in the matter of short time loans on farm lands. The News and Observer publishes today the last of a series of letters on short time farm land loans issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. The purpose is to show the contrast between the short time loan and the long term loan, for by means of the Farm Land Loan bank law farmers can borrow money for terms not less than five years and up to forty years, these to be repaid in small semi-annual amounts which include the interest and a sum sufficient to wipe out the principal in the selected number of years.—Raleigh News and Observer.

SAMPSON DEMOCRATS NAME TICKET FOR THE COUNTY

Large and Enthusiastic Crowd Gathers For the Convention.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clinton, N. C., Oct. 22.—The militant Democracy of Sampson county met here yesterday, held its convention for the selection of a county ticket, heard speeches by orators of statewide reputation, and went home in a more jubilant mood than they have had in a number of years.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds of Democrats that has gathered in Clinton in several years were here for the convention, and on the faces of these party men there was reflected a pride in the party's achievement. They were happy over the fact that the Republican party has been confounded in State and nation, and as shouting Methodists enjoy their religion they were enjoying their politics. Old Sampson county may not redeem herself this year, the odds are most too great, but the Democrats of the county are confident they will make some gains. They're happy over it.

The convention named an unusually strong ticket, headed by A. McL. Graham for the Legislature and L. A. Bethune for chairman of the board of county commissioners. A strong and progressive platform was adopted, favoring the placing of the county officers on a salary basis, a different plan and unit for the road improvement work, and giving endorsement to the party's record in the nation.

Speech-making and a general glorification of Democracy's record was the order of the day. Messrs. Dan Hugh McLean, of Harnett; George F. Jones, of Johnson, candidates for the State senate from this district; Walter E. Brock, former secretary of the State Executive Committee, and solicitor in his district; Hon. James R. Young, State commissioner of insurance, were among the visiting Democrats who entertained the administration. All of these speakers pleased their audience.

DUPLIN CHILD'S LIFE SAVED

Watermelon Seed Removed From Larynx by Baltimore Surgeon.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 22.—Norman Lee Potter, the baby son of Durham Potter, a Pink Hill deputy sheriff, and wife, will live as the result of the skill of a noted Baltimore specialist who this week removed a watermelon seed from his throat that had been lodged there for five weeks and defied the efforts of a number of physicians to extract it. Mr. and Mrs. Potter have returned from Baltimore with the child, who has gained about four pounds since the operation. The child is less than two years old. Every chance was that he would die unless the seed could be removed. Last week a severe croup was brought about by its presence in the larynx. The parents were referred to the specialist, and the baby was carried to St. Joseph's hospital in Baltimore, where, with superior equipment, the surgeon was able to extract the seed without having to use the knife. The child, a bright, intelligent little fellow, is rapidly regaining health.

PUTS UP $1,500 ON WILSON

Baltimore Politician Said to Have Been Given Odds of 6 to 5.

(Saturday's Baltimore Sun.)

It was stated yesterday on excellent authority that one of the big leaders in the Democratic city organization had bet $1,500 that President Wilson would be re-elected. The latter put up $1,800 on Hughes, so that the odds were 6 to 5 in Hughes' favor.

Apart from the fact that it is only two or three weeks since the Republicans were talking about odds of 2 to 1 and 2 to 1 on Hughes, and the significance of a shift in the odds to 6 to 5, the amount put up by the Baltimore politician on Wilson, is regarded as proving that the politician believes the President is going to win. This politician, who has sources of accurate information from all sections, is not the sort to bet on sentiment; he bets to win money. And he would not bet $1,500 on Wilson at any odds unless he believes that he had a fine chance to win.

ELECTIONS IN MEXICO TO BE HELD TOMORROW

To Select Delegates to the Constitutional Assembly

They Will Meet Next Month at Queretaro to Consider, Approve and Adopt a New Constitution For the Republic.

Mexico City, Oct. 21.—Elections will be held tomorrow throughout the republic for delegates to the constitutional assembly, which will meet in Queretaro next month to consider, approve and adopt a new constitution for Mexico.

In each state one delegate and one alternate will be chosen for each 70,000 population and each part of that number over 20,000 as recorded by the census of 1910. Strict rules as to the eligibility of the candidates have been set forth in the decree of General Carranza. Those who have taken arms against the constitutionalist cause or given aid to the parties opposed to the constitutionalists are declared ineligible and those who wish to represent states in which they resided in 1913 at the time of the overthro wof Madero, must give concrete proof of adherence to the constitutionalist cause.

The delegates elected at tomorrow's election will hold their first preliminary meeting at Queretaro, November 21.

GEN. OZUNA SAID TO BE IN PURSUIT OF VILLA BANDITS

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 21.—It was stated at the Mexican army headquarters in Juarez tonight that, according to the latest reports from Chihuahua City, General Ozuna, after making a stand and overcoming Villa's forces at Palomas ,18 miles west of Chihuahua City, was now engaged in their pursuit. Nothing was known, however, of the direction the pursuit was taking.

Reports said to have come directly out of Mexico have it that General Ozuna obtained the advantage of Villa in an encounter at San Andres when he was surprised and flanker out by bandits under Salazar, being chased back to Palomas, where he reformed his men and made a successful stand.

NEW LEASE ON LIFE

Support Is Pledged For the United Charities at Kinston.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 22.—A new lease on life was given the local United Charities at an interdenominational meeting in Gordon Christian church tonight. Members of various church congregations in the city pledged themselves to support the organization, which has in years past rendered great service. A captain of the Salvation Army is now superintendent of the charities. A few days ago he reported that the treasury contained just seven cents. Contributions poured in to alleviate the immediate condition, while the action tonight was intended to insure the proper maintenance of the organization in future and provide for the winter's work.

SIMMONS NOT TO SPEAK.

Engagement at Lenoir County Democratic Rally Cancelled.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 22. — An engagement of Senator F. M. Simmons to speak at a Democratic rally in Lenoir county about the end of this month has been cancelled, according to announcement last night by the county headquarters here. G. V. Cowper, the county chairman, stated that it is intended to keep Mr. Simmons practically exclusively occupied in the Tenth district, where his power is needed, during the remainder of the campaign. The county executive committee are preparing to forward a big bunch of county tickets to be used in the troop election at El Paso. There are about a hundred Lenoir county voters with the First North Carolina brigade there.

NORTH CAROLINA STILL RETAINS LEAD IN SOUTH

More Than $30,000 Has Been Contributed for Wilson Fund.

Winston-Salem Keeps First Place While Wilmington Remains Second. Report of Mr. Hugh MacRae, State Treasurer.

North Carolina still maintains the place of honor which she has held among the Southern states in the amount of her contributions to the support of President Wilson and the Democratic party, according to the last weekly report of Mr. Hugh MacRae, secretary-treasurer of the finance committee of the State for the Wilson-Marshall Campaign fund.

While the report of receipts from the various counties and towns in the State up to Friday night show a total of $29,454, Mr. MacRae states in an accompanying letter that the subscriptions received Saturday, too late for publication in the list, carried the fund beyond the $30,000 mark and he is confident that if all the committees show the efficiency for this week that some of the best of them have already demonstrated that North Carolina's fund will be carried well beyond $35,000.

Winston-Salem has a long lead over any other city in the State with a total of $11,694.50, while Wilmington remains second with a total of $3,769.75. Raleigh is third in the list with $1,362.50, while Greensboro is fourth with $1,270.

The report of Mr. MacRae includes all towns and cities in which committees have been appointed. Those opposite which asterisks are given are at work, but their committees have not yet reported. The complete list of contributions follows:

NO NEGRO VOTERS FROM HERE

District Attorney J. O. Carr Reports That They are Sent North For Bona Fire Labor.

The movement of negroes from Wilmington Northern cities in the past few weeks has been for purpose of securing bona fide laborers at railroad terminals in New York and Philadelphia in the opinion of United States District Attorney J. O. Carr, of Wilmington, who in response to a request from the Department of Justice at Washington made an investigation of the local situation the past week.

District Attorney Carr was informed that the Department of Justice had received many complaints about the movement of negroes to be used in the November election and he was directed to make an investigation in Eastern North Carolina to ascertain if such was the case. The Department of Justice has also directed its agents in Alabama to trace the movement of negroes North from that state.

The negro movement from Wilmington has not been to West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana, three doubtful Republican states, but to New York and Philadelphia, where they are employed as stevedores at railroad terminals.

There has been no wholesale movement of negroes from Wilmington to Northern states within the last several weeks. Labor agents have been reported to be at work here but these rumors have proven unfounded. Many of the negroes have voluntarily expressed their opposition to the shipping out of laborers, believing that here in the South they have better opportunities than in the North.

Regarding the report in the Washington correspondence of yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer that he was to be instructed to look into the transportation of a carload of negroes from Fayetteville to West Virginia, District Attorney Carr said last night that he had heard nothing about it. The Observer says:

"The Department of Justice will have its agents in North Carolina and Alabama trace train loads of negroes from those states to West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana. Officials of the department have been informed that Republican leaders in West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana have been colonizing negroes from the South for months for the November election.

"United States District Attorney J. O. Carr, of the Eastern North Carolina District, will be instructed to ascertain all the facts about the transportation of a car load of negro men from Fayetteville to West Virginia last summer.

"It is estimated that 20,000 negroes have been taken from Southern states into each of the doubtful states of Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia, where spirited contests for seats in the United States Senate are being waged. It is believed that James E. Watson, of Indiana, and Howard Sutherland, of West Virginia and other Republican politicians are behind a movement to colonize negroes in their respective states to boost the Republican vote in November.

"The Department of Justice is determined to get at the bottom of the transfer of thousands of negroes from the South during the last several months to Northern and the Middle Western states.

"Very vigorous investigations will be made in West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana."

WILMINGTON SECOND CITY IN SOUTH TO HAVE FILM PLAYS

"In the Land of the Long Leaf Pine" To be Filmed at Early Date.

With the exception of Jacksonville, Fla., Wilmington will shortly have the distinction of being the only city in the South that will produce motion pictures complete, from scenario to screen. This result will come from the recent organization of the Carolina Film Producing Company, an enterprise manned by local talent, from scenario editor down to property man.

The company has been organized on the theory that every city of the size of Wilmington has enough local talent to properly produce a successful scenario, and that the region of eastern North Carolina is rich enough in historic lore and romantic scenery to play the background in some stirring tales.

Mr. Earl Langenberg, manager of the Grand Theatre, is general manager and chief camera man of the new company, Mr. Carl B. Rehder is director and scenario editor; Mr. E. H. Hodges is assistant camera man and laboratory chief, and Mr. D. M. Bain is advertising and publicity man.

For their initial undertaking a tale of the Carolina turpentine camps, entitled "In the Land of the Long Leaf Pine" will be filmed. The scene is laid in this section in the days when the turpentine business was a paramount industry in the Carolinas. The story was written by Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Rehder, and is a thrilling narrative of romance and intrigue. An entirely local cast will be used.

QUARANTINE LIFTED.

Inmates of Colonial Apartments Once Again Free to Go Out.

As the town clock pealed the hour of 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the quarantine for infantile paralysis that has held sway over the Colonial Apartments at the corner of Third and Market streets, was removed and the occupants, once again free to come and go as they saw fit, gave vent to their joy by taking advantage of their recovered liberty.

Among the children, the greatest joy prevailed. For two long weeks they had been forced to confine their activities within doors, and when at last the quarantine was lifted their joy knew no bounds.

The kiddies were not alone either in their gladness at being released, for there were many mothers who had been kept in the building during the two weeks of quarantine.

With the one victim of the disease rapidly recovering, the health department anticipates no further trouble from the malady.

MAY HAVE TO LIGHTER CARGO

Chilean Ship Loaded With Nitrates Due at Southport—May Be Unable to Navigate River.

The cargo of nitrates which the Chilean merchantman Maipo, which is expected at Southport today, may have to be brought to Wilmington in lighters, as the vessel was drawing 30 feet of water when she sailed from Antofagasta, on the western coast of South America on September 29th. If the vessel is still drawing over 26 feet, it will be impossible for her to come up the river.

The vessel is bringing a cargo of nitrates to be discharged at the Atlantic Coast Line terminals in Wilmington. The ship is consigned to Heide & Co., ship brokers of this city. She is owned by the Chilean government. The tonnage of the vessel is listed at 3,186. Vessels of much larger tonnage than this have come up the river with cargoes but the draught of a vessel depends largely upon the plan of construction, it is stated, and upon the weight of the cargo carried.

While the vessel was drawing 30 feet when she sailed, she also carried considerable coal which has been burned for fuel while in transit and the density of the water would also have something to do with it. It may be easily possible that she is not drawing more than 25 feet now, it is stated, and in that event she would have no trouble in coming up the river.

There are two Chilean vessels listed under the name Maipo, but the other one is only about half as large and is last reported as being bound for Valparaiso.

NEW YORK FIRM BUYS SUPPLY OF TOYS FROM WILMINGTON

Messrs. Einstein Bros. Sell Some 75 Cases to Big New York Store.

That the boy or girl who finds a foreign-made toy in his or her collection of Christmas things will indeed be the possessor of a prize, is evidenced by the fact that Einstein Brothers, of Wilmington, sold 75 cases of foreign-made playthings during the past week to the headquarters of a big New York chain of stores.

The New York concern, in view of the great shortage of these toys, considered themselves fortunate in finding even the comparatively small supply that the Messrs. Einstein were able to furnish them. From New York the Wilmington toys will be shipped to the company's stores throughout the country, including even Texas, Louisiana, Missouri and Illinois.

Mr. Abe Einstein, of Einstein Bros., said last night that the greatest scarcity would be felt in the case of dolls and mechanical toys. While American manufacturers have placed on the market a friction toy that in some measure replaces the mechanical one, it is still far from satisfactory as a successor to it.

It is a well known fact that American manufacturers are far behind the Germans in the manufacture of dolls. This means that many a little mother will have to cuddle an inferior and cheaper pet to her bosom during the coming yuletide.

In the opinion of Mr. Einstein, all toys will be considerably higher in price during the coming year, and he says that at a conservative estimate 20 per cent. will be the amount of increase in domestic toys, while foreign ones will be considerably higher.

TO ERECT BOTTLING PLANT IN NEW BERN AT EARLY DATE

Mr. George H. Hutaff Announces Plans For Bottling Plant.

Plans for erecting a modern and commodious building in New Bern for the Coca-Cola Bottling Works, of that city, were announced yesterday by Mr. George H. Hutaff, of Wilmington, who is the principal stockholder in the company. The plant will be two stories in height and will be constructed of pressed brick with limestone trimmings. The cost of the structure will be approximately $7,000 while the equipment will represent an outlay of several thousand dollars, making the total investment about $10,000.

Plans for the new building have been made by Mr. H. E. Bonitz, architect, of Wilmington, and the contract will be awarded in a few days, Mr. Hutaff stated last night. The plant will be equipped with the low pressure system which is the "last word" in bottling equipment. Mr. Hutaff will go to Baltimore in a few days to inspect plants there before placing his order. When completed the plant will be one of the most modern of its kind in North Carolina.

REV. BELT WHITE SPEAKS

Representative of Southern Christian Home at Dock Street Church.

Rev. Belt White, of Roanoke, Ala., field representative of the Southern Christian Home of Atlanta, addressed the congregation of the Dock Street Christian church at the evening service last night. Mr. White made a splendid talk, and was greeted by a large audience. Mr. J. W. Buck sang a beautiful solo.

Speaking of the good that is being accomplished by the Southern Home, Mr. White quoted some interesting figures. He said that the contributions this year amounted to $202,353, and that 1,230 children and widows were cared for. It has under its direction five old people's homes and six orphanages.

These orphanages have cared for a total of 21,000 children during its history, and has placed 4,700 children and 2,500 babies in Christian homes.

PRIZES FOR FLOATS

Industrial Parade Will be Big Event in Corn Show This Year.

Mr. Thomas R. Ames, chairman of the parade committee of the Corn Show, has announced the prizes that will be offered for the floats taking part in the event. According to the interest that is being manifested in the event, the parade this year will be much larger than the one last year.

For the float adjudged the best a prize of $17.50 will be awarded; the second best will draw $10, while the third will be given $7.50. Ribbons will be awarded to the automobiles adjudged the best. Private cars decorated with flowers are expected to be a feature.

A large number of business houses have signified their intention of entering floats in the parade. In addition to these, the W. L. I. and the coast guard cutter Seminole will also have places.

EXPLAINS THE REASON WHY

Grand Chaplain S. Mendelsohn, of Royal Arcanum, Discusses Recent Increase in Rates.

Dr. S. Mendelsohn, grand chaplain of the North Carolina Royal Arcanum, has recently addressed a letter to members of this order in which he discusses at considerable length the recent increase made in the insurance rates, which become effective on December 1st.

Dr. Mendelsohn and Grand Secretary H. E. Bonitz, of this city, will meet with the Royal Arcanians in Raleigh tonight to discuss the increase in rates. Mr. Bonitz went to Raleigh Saturday night.

A joint meeting of the local councils of the Royal Arcanum will be held in Wilmington Wednesday night when Supreme Guide Samuel M. Brinson, of New Bern, will make an address on the insurance rates.

The communication of Dr. Mendelsohn is as follows:

"The agitation that, for the past several months, has been brewing in Royal Arcanum circles is, I observe with satisfaction, quieting down. From the Official Organ of the Order and from well informed private sources, the brethren have learned that the fulminations of the anti-fraternalism journals were false prophecies; the re-adjustment was motivated, not by any inherent weakness of the Arcanum structure, but by additional safeguards required by the adoption of the latest insurance laws in nearly all the states where the banner of V. M. C. protects the widow and the orphan; that the raise in rates, instead of being 300 per cent., averages only about 20 per cent; that the raise rendered the Order actuarily 100 per cent. solvent and our 'assurance double sure'; and the brethren having learned all this, decided to stand by our great fraternity, to help it continue the noble work it has been doing these well-nigh four decades.

"Of course, there still are some malcontents, especially among those members who, having enlisted themselves years ago on the term table of regular rates and reached the age of 65 or over, are now paying monthly $5.36 per $1,000. They think that the rate of $64.32 annually per $1,000 covers the cost of their protection, and that therefore their rates should not be raised. To these I desire to say a word.

"My Brothers: I am a member of your group and, as to continued membership, one of the oldest in your group. As such, I shall be affected by the recent re-adjustment as much as any one of you. Therefore, when in May, last, the Supreme Executive Committee startled the quarter-million Arcanians by the announcement that readjustment of rates was imperative, and declared, 'As a matter of fact, our experience has shown that $5.36 per month per $1,000 is not now and never was an adequate rate for whole life insurance, even at a particular age of 65,' I ventured to dispute it. From official data embodied in the Supreme Secretary's report for the year 1915, I proved that the group of members, ranging in age between 65 and 96 years and paying monthly $5.36 per $1,000 practically covered all the death losses of that group. My findings—the bases of my computation and the conclusion deduced—I embodied in an 'Address to the Special Committee on Assessments,' copies of which I sent to all members of the Supreme Council.

"On September 6th, I was privileged personally to appear before the Supreme Council, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., when I pleaded your cause and mine. I argued against the imposition of 'heavy and grievous burdens upon the members now on the regular rate,' and particularly upon those now paying monthly $5.36 per $1,000. I was opposed by the computations of four expert actuaries whose disquisitions commanded the confidence of 93 (against 11) members of the Supreme Council, and my plea was rejected.

"Notwithstanding the actuaries' averments to the contrary, my conviction that the contributions of our group covered the cost of our insurance remains unshaken; and notwithstanding this my conviction, I willing submit to the judgment of the Supreme Council and urge you, my veteran brothers, to 'Go and do likewise.'

"Am I striking discordant notes here? Do you think me inconsistent and my position anomalous? Permit me to explain myself, to briefly state my reason. It is retrospective and prospective.

"Retrospectively, we must realize that, while our present assessments cover the cost of our protection, we have been paying too little in our younger years. Let me illustrate this by my own case. And first let me tell you what I should have paid for my insurance, had I bought it in a commercial life insurance company.

"The Royal Arcanum being a Massachusetts corporation, I refer to the rate tables of insurance companies of that state. There I find the old line gross premier rate (actuaries' four per cent. Massachusetts companies) at age 28, to be annually $22 pe r$1,000. A policy holder under this rate, if he paid it for 38 years, would have paid on his policy $836.00 per $1,000, or $2,508.00 on a policy of $3,000. With the last figures in mind, we now turn to my account with the Royal Arcanum Widows' and Orphans' Benefit Fund.

"I was initiated January, 1879, and assessed as of age 28, last birthday, $1.28 monthly on a certificate of $3,000. This rate I continued paying until 1898, when the first readjustment raised it to $2.24 monthly. Seven years later, in 1905, I was re-assessed as of age 56, nearest birthday, $5.88 per month, and about two years ago, I attained the age of 65 and my monthly rate on $3,000 rose spontaneously to $16.08.

"Computing all these figures and what they signify, we have the following results, using round numbers:

Twenty years at ($1.28x12) $15.36; total $307.00.

Seven years ($2.24x12) $26.88; total $188.00.

Nine years ($5.88x12) $70.56; total $635.00.

Two years at ($16.08x12) $192.96; total $386.00.

Making a grand total of $1,516.00 for $3,000 protection for 38 years—$992.00 less than I would have paid in the same number of years and for the same amount of insurance, had I carried it in an old line company!

"This difference, averaging $26 per year—two-thirds of my average payments on $3,000—had I paid it into the Emergency Fund of the Royal Arcanum, would have grown to a large amount by this time. With accruing 4 per cent. interest per annum, it would now amount to upwards of $2,300—a large reserve on a $3,000 policy—and would have precluded all possible need of readjustment as to my protection. I did not pay into the Emergency Fund, and there is no reserve to the credit of my benefit certificate, hence I am justly required to pay a higher rate now that I am grown much older.

"And is not your came the same. Ponder it, my brother. Draw a balance between the sum total of what you have paid to the Royal Arcanum and that of what your protection should have cost you in your younger years, and you will, in all conscience, admit that the history of my case could have been written in the second person and under the superscription, Thou Are the Man!

"Prospectively, again, I appreciate the beneficial effect of the readjustment. It is manifold.

"First: The raise in our assessments renders the order actuarily 100 per cent. solvent, and I should rather pay a higher rate to an institution that is so solvent, than a lower rate to one whose certificate is far below par.

"Secondly: The raise in our rates insures the safety and stability of the order, and makes it certain that the very last benefit certificate, when matured, will be redeemed at its full face value.

"Thirdly: The raise in our rates enables the order to grant us surrender values. The cry has all along been, 'You pay into the Order's fund, but get nothing out of the Order's fund, unless you die, and even then you cannot be the beneficiary of your investment.' But henceforth this cry will be silenced. A member, having paid the new rates for a certain number of years, and attained the age of 70 or over, may surrender his certificate and receive as an old age benefit a sum equal to the whole reserve accummulations on that certificate, and thus himself enjoy his savings at a time he naturally ceases to be a producer.

"Fourthly: But why tire you with the recital of the additional benefits, the additional percentage on our rates enables the order to accord us? Read the Royal Arcanum Bulletin for September and for October. There they are enumerated and explained. There you will find also that the raise in our rates does not necessarily make our burdens too heavy for us. We may continue to pay our present rates for proportionate amounts of protection. Besides, we all know and feel the truth conveyed in the adage, 'That load becomes light which is cheerfully borne.'

"Let us, then, cheerfully continue to aid the Royal Arcanum in the great and noble work it has been prosecuting these two score years, and 'the work of righteousness will be peace, and the effect of the readjustment will be quietness and assurance for ever.'

"Yours in V. M. C.,
"S. MENDELSOHN,

ABOUT TWO HUNDRED ATTEND FAMILY REUNION IN DUPLIN

Wallace, N. C., Oct. 22.—A very enjoyable reunion of the descendants of Benjamin Fussell was held at the old homestead near Rose Hill on October 14th. Out of the 400 surviving, there were about 200 present. A long table of good eatables, a band of music and ideal weather contributed to make the day one to be long remembered.

Of the descendants there are surviving six children, 56 grand children, 133 great grand-children and and eight great great-grand-children. Among those from a distance present were Mr. A. B. Fussell, of Norfolk; Rev. R. H. Fussell, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. H. E. Ortman, of Wilmington. It is expected that on the same date next year another one will be held and it is hoped still more will be present, as this one was gotten up so quickly that many who might have attended did not know of it in time to make arrangements to do so.

PRETTY MARRIAGE CEREMONY JOINS POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE

Cherry Grove Beach, S. C., Oct 18. — On Wednesday afternoon at half past two o'clock a wedding of much interest was solemnized at the home of Mr. Nicholas F. Nixon, when his only daughter, Miss Ellen Nixon, was married to Mr. S. Reese Cockfield, of Johnsonville, S. C.

This marriage was charming in simplicity, but beautiful in every detail. The two parlors were turned into one, which made a spacious hall. The decorations were of Southern smilax, a profusion of chrysanthemums and pot plants making them blossom like summer land.

Just before the bridal party entered Miss Louise McQueen, of Dunbar, S. C., sang sweetly "Because," and "Constancy." At the appointed hour, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Blondelle Cockfield, the bridal party entered. The bridesmaid was Miss Sue Stanley with Mr. Erwin Poston, and the maid of honor was Miss Cornelia Cockfield with Mr. Clarence Davis, who entered first; then came the dame of honor, Mrs. Stone. They were becomingly dressed in coat suits, carrying exquisite bouquets of white chrysanthemums. The bride entered with her brother, Nicholas F. Nixon, Jr., and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. R. L. Cockfield. The bride was most attractive in a stylish coat suit of dark brown with accessories to match, and carried a huge bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Rev. Mr. Cook, of Little River, S. C., performed the ceremony. Immediately after the service a reception was held. Ice cream and cake were served, and Miss Harley, of Williston, presided over the punch bowl. An attractive feature was the cutting of the wedding cake, which afforded much amusement.

Shortly after the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Cockfield left by automobile for Florence, where they boarded the train for Jacksonville, Fla., and other points south.

The bride is a general favorite among a large circle of friends. The groom is a son of Mr. J. A. Cockfield, and is equally popular, and a very prominent business man of Johnsonville, S. C.

MISS HUSKE AND DR. JORDAN MARRIED AT FAYETTEVILLE

Fayetteville, Oct. 22.—Miss Louise Manning Huske, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Huske, of this city, and Dr. William S. Jordan, a popular Fayetteville physician, were married in St. John's Episcopal church at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. The ceremony, which was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives, was performed by Rev. Archer Boogher, the rector.

The simple church decorations were in white and green, palms and ferns being the plants used. Mrs. S. A. Lambert, the organist, rendered several organ solos and played the wedding march.

Before the coming of the bridal party the vested choir of the church entered, singing "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

The ushers were John Manning Huske, of Charlotte, the bride's brother; Lieut. A. A. McKethan and Albert Stewart, of this city and A. D. McKenzie, of Rowland. Miss Eleanor Huske, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bride entered the church with her father. She wore a gown of duchess satin draped with white tulle, with court train and bridal veil caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of bride roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The maids of honor wore white tulle over satin, and a picture hat. She carried Killarney roses.

The best man was Lieut. L. LaF. Jordan, U. S. N., stationed at Annapolis.

An informal reception at which relatives and intimate friends were present, was held at the home of the bride's parents on Haymount immediately after the ceremony. After the reception the young couple left for a wedding tour.

Mrs. Jordan is a beautiful and accomplished young woman. She is a grand-daughter of the late Judge John Manning, for years dean of the law school of the University of North Carolina. Dr. Jordan is a son of Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Jordan, of Raleigh.

Among the guests from other cities who were here to attend the marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lewis, Mrs. Lewis being the bride's sister; John Manning Huske, of Charlotte; Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Jordan, of Raleigh; Miss Julia Jordan and Master Dixon Jordan, the bridegroom's sister and brother, of Raleigh; Mrs. L. Z. Sutton, of Raleigh; Miss May Michaux, of Richmond, Va.; A. D. McKenzie, of Rowland, and Lieutenant Jordan.

The wedding has been the center of much social interest, and a number of pre-nuptial affairs were given in Miss Huske's honor.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Among the arrivals at the Orton yesterday were: J. R. Henderson, Jacksonville; R. G. Morrisey, Jr., Clinton.

—Judge George W. Connor, who will preside at the term of New Hanover Superior Court, which convenes here today, arrived in the city last night and is a guest at the Orton.

—D. W. Burruss, Esq., of Richmond, Va., spent the week-end in the city with friends. Mr. Burruss is now connected with the legal department of the Southern Express Company.

—Dr. T. B. Carroll, city meat and milk inspector, has returned from Springfield, Mass., where he went to attend a meeting of National Meat and Milk Inspectors' Association. Dr. Carroll says that there were 200 delegates in attendance.

—Mr. J. P. Herring, couny farm demonstrator and president of the New Hanover County Federal Loan Association, will leave today for Raleigh, where he will appear before the Federal Farm Loan Board, in the interest of having one of the 12 Farm Loan banks established in Raleigh.

—Iredell Meares, Esq., left yesterday afternoon for Charleston, W. Va., where tonight he will make the first of a series of speeches in the interest of the Republican party. He will probably be away from the city until the election as the Republicans in that state feel the need of outside help to swing the state into the G. O. P. camp.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Stonewall Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, will have a meeting tonight to confer the first degree on a number of candidates. A number of visitors are expected to be present.

WILL NOT EXPRESS OPINION

Attorney General Bickett Not Asked to Decide About Payment of Troops.

Although Attorney General T. W. Bickett has been asked by private persons to express an opinion as to the responsibility for the payment of the State troops sent to Wilmington during the street car strike in July, he has declined to do so until asked for an opinion by a State official, according to the Raleigh Evening Times.

The Times referring to a news item to the effect that doubt had been expressed as to whether New Hanover county should pay the expense of the troops while in Wilmington, amounting to about $5,000, says that State authorities said on Friday that the troops were ordered to Wilmington after the request of the sheriff and upon recommendation of Judge Stacy and that while in New Hanover they reported to the sheriff and acted under his orders.

Should the Attorney General hold that the county must bear the expense, it is not expected that the matter would be taken to the courts as there had been no disposition on the part of the local officials to dodge the responsibility, but they have desired to find out whether or not they were expected to pay the bills and have simply been seeking information to this end.

INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE

Encouraging Reports From Wilmington Sunday Schools Yesterday.

The Sunday schools in Wilmington making reports of their attendance yesterday showed a increased enrollment as well as greater interest with every prospect that this winter will show the best records of any previous year. The attendance is rapidly increasing each Sunday.

The Sunday schools making reports of their attendance yesterday are as follows: St. Paul's Lutheran, 230; Grace Methodist, 302; First Presbyterian, 195; Bladen Street Methodist, 133; Delgado Baptist, 102; Fifth Avenue Methodist, 191; Castle Heights Methodist, 23; Christian, 93; Trinity Methodist, 105.

The Sunday school of St. John's Episcopal showed an especially good record. Out of a total enrollment of 123, there was an attendance of 83 pupils and 13 of the 14 officers and teachers were present.

BANDITS, AFTER HOLDING UP TRAIN, DRIVEN OFF BY CREW

Five Men Stop Passenger Train, But Fail to Effect a Robbery.

Shreveport, La., Oct. 22.—Five men held up an eastbound passenger train the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific railroad, near Rayville, La., early tonight, but were put to flight after an exchange of shots with members of the train crew before they could gain entrance to the mail or baggage cars. None of the trainmen were wounded, and so far as could be ascertained all of the bandits escaped without injury.

The men presumably boarded the train, known as No. 2, at Rayville and crawling over the tender of the engine forced the engineer to bring the train to a stop about a mile outside the town. They then attempted to uncouple the passenger coaches from the baggage and express cars, but failed, and when their efforts to force open the doors of the cars also were without success, they opened fire on the train. Several bullets went through the windows of the baggage car and another narrowly missed th eengineer. A man named Gulledge, a railroad fireman, gained a point of vantage when the firing started and returned the shots, the robbers taking to their heels and disappearing in a dense swamp when it became apparent that their attempt at banditry was to be resisted.

Posses were quickly organized in Rayville and started in pursuit of the men.

WINTRY WEATHER COMING

Weather Man Says That Overcoats to Be Popular This Week—No Freezing Temperatures.

The cool weather that prevailed over Wilmington yesterday is only the forerunner of what we may expect for the next few days, according to the announcement of the local weather bureau last night. Fair weather with the mercury sliding down a considerable distance is the prediction for the next day or two.

No freezing weather is predicted, however, at least not for the next day or two, but overcoats will be popular pieces of wearing apparel for a few days, and dogs that roam the streets at night will shiver in some convenient corner instead of monopolizing the traffic on the streets as they have been doing during the summer months.

Forty degrees is the low mark set by the weather bureau and the experts in this department do not anticipate anything lower.

So when the wind begins to whistle around the corners in a few days, just think of the days that you sweltered last summer and prayed for a wintry blast. Don't kick and complain, just remember that you are getting what you wanted and prayed for.

Take the same view of it that the old Confederate soldier did when he was confined in the Elmira prison during the War Between the States. This old fellow was always complaining of the poor warming facilities that the "Yankees" provided for their enforced guests. Finally one particularly cold day he claimed, "If I ever get back to North Carolina, I'm going to build me a pine knot fire and warm, if it is the middle of August when I get there."

Ready For "All Comers."

President Wilson has not a more ardent admirer in the whole country than "Judge" G. W. Bornemann, who has announced that he is ready to meet any Republican, one at a time, in joint debate on the issues of the campaign at any time and any place they may select. The only condition the "Judge" specifies is that he shall have the first ten minutes to be followed by his opponent for the same length of time. He also wants to have ten minutes for a rejoinder, allowing his opponent the same privilege. "I have lived in Wilmington for 46 years," says the magistrate, "and I am a pure Southern Democrat. I am ready to meet all comers. I believe that President Wilson is the greatest man in this country today."

MERCHANT SUBMARINES WILL BE TREATED AS MERCHANTMEN

Dutch Government Replies to Memorandum of the Entente Allies.

Amsterdam, Oct. 22.—The Nieuws Van Den Dag makes the following announcement:

"In replying to the memorandum of the Entente allied powers regarding the interning of all submarines in neutral waters, the Dutch government states that commercial submarines will be treated as merchantmen by Holland."

London, Oct. 22.—Reuter's correspondent sends the following concerning the Netherlands government's note on the use of Dutch waters by submarines:

"Replying to the Entente Allies' submarine note, the Dutch government intimates that in consequence of the uncertainty of the status of submarines, they will be treated as warships, and in accordance with the Dutch neutrality proclamation will not be allowed to enter or remain in Dutch waters except on well defined conditions.

The government, however, will not intern merchant submarines, because there is no principle of international law which would justify such a course."

NAMES OF 300 ALLEGED ILLEGAL VOTERS ON BOOKS

Federal Officers Go to Mingo County, W. Va., to Investigate.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 22.—Special officers from the Department of Justice, at Washington, have been sent to Mingo county as a result of the claim that 300 names of alleged illegal voters appear on the registration books, according to advices received here today. An investigation will be made and if necessary the courts will be asked to correct the lists before the election next month. In the trial of Greenway Hatfield, brother of Governor Hatfield, and a number of other residents of Mingo county, in the United Sates District court, at Huntington, early this month, on a charge of conspiracy growing out of the congressional election in 1914, a verdict of not guilty was returned, and the jury disagreed a few days later in the trial of the same defendants on another charge growing out of the same election.

Some of Those Attending Are Said to be Over 100 Years Old.

Washington, October 22. — Former negro slaves began a two weeks' national reunion here today. Some of those attending are said to be more than 100 years old. Issuance of the emancipation proclamation and passage of the Thirteenth amendment will be celebrated.

STOP CALOMEL! TAKE DODSON'S LIVER TONE

New Discovery! Takes Place of Dangerous Calomel—It Puts Your Liver To Work Without Making You Sick—Eat Anything—It Can Not Salivate—Don't Lose a Day's Work!

I discovered a vegetable compound that does the work of dangerous, sickening calomel and I want every reader of this paper to try a bottle and if it doesn't straighten you up better and quicker than salivating calomel just go back to the store and get your money.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your thirty feet of bowels of the sour bile and constipation poison which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable.

I guarantee that one spoonful of this harmless liquid liver medicine will relieve the headache, biliousness, coated tongue, ague, malaria, sour stomach or any other distress caused by a torpid liver as quickly as a dose of vile, nauseating calomel, besides it will not make you sick or keep you from a day's work. I want to see a bottle of this wonderful liver medicine in every home here.

Calomel is poison—it's mercury—it attacks the bones, often causing rheumatism. Calomel is dangerous. It sickens—while my Dodson's Liver Tone is safe, pleasant and harmless. Eat anything afterwards, because it can not salivate. Give it to the children because it doesn't upset the stomach or shock the liver. Take a spoonful tonight and wake up feeling fine and ready for a full day's work.

Get a bottle! Try it! If it doesn't do exactly what I say, tell your dealer to hand your money back. Every druggist and store keeper here knows me and knows of my wonderful discovery of a vegetable medicine that takes the place of dangerous calomel.

CLEWS' BUSINESS REVIEW

War Continues the Overshadowing Spectacle—Food Products Rising. Financial Situation.

(Special Star Correspondence).

New York, Oct. 22.—The upward surge in values gained renewed force. This applied to commodities and securities alike, not only in the United States, but in the world over. All neutral countries are enjoying exceptional prosperity, and in this respect the United States far outdistances every one of them. The war, of course, is the supreme influence, all other factors being of minor importance compared with this one. Even our election, full as it is of important potentialities, is completely overshadowed by the cataclysm across the sea. This war is almost entirely responsible for the scarcity of both commodities and labor. Short crops are a factor that cannot be overlooked; nevertheless the old and and supposedly obsolete law of supply and demand is working ceaselessly with an energy never before experienced, because of the struggle now devastating Europe.

This week wheat and corn touched new high points, with indications that still higher figures may possibly be reached. All food products are rising, and the same is true of clothing; while our mineral industries—iron, steel, copper, petroleum, etc.—are rushed at a pace far exceeding the most daring expectations of a year ago. Bradstreet's commodity index number was 12.0399 October 1, an advance of 23 per cent. since the war began. Industries dependent upon agricultural and mineral products are reaping directly and indirectly large profits as a result of war inflation, but their prosperity is small compared with what has been reached by a few of the big industrials, notably those engaged in the fabrication of steel.

The question forced upon our minds is how long can such high tension prosperity last; and have we in the United States reached the crest of the wave? I think not; because the end of the war, on which all this feverish rush depends, is not yet in sight. Apparently there will be no peace for many months at least. Signs of serious exhaustion on either side are still wanting; reason has lost its away, and mad passion rules all belligerents. Until the power of one side or the other is broken it would seem that peace will be impossible. The Allies are already negotiating for another big loan on this side; steel for munitions is being ordered deliverable into the third quarter of 1917, and ships, guns and munitions are being turned out with greater intensity than at any time during the war. Such efforts do not portend peace. They rather suggest further sacrifices, further destruction and more and more waste; although it may be that change of mind or breakdown of strength will develop when least expected. In any event, the immediate outlook for peace is remote and this conviction is the prime source of present market strength.

America cannot avoid looking on in sorrow at the harrowing spectacle, but our people and our government are alike incapable of interfering or affecting the issue in any way. All neutrals are benefiting from the needs of the belligerents; the United States, owing to its industrial capacity, naturally profiting far more than any other. When the war is over, this country will find itself in a vastly strengthened position. It will be financially independent of Europe; and out of the vast profits made from the war, it will doubtless be enabled to assist many of the suffering nations of Europe to recover their impaired positions by depending largely upon this country for the capital and material needed for reconstruction. The world has never seen such an example of the folly of war, or the wisdom of peace, as will appear when peace arrives.

For some time to come our leading industries promise to experience much speculative activity, the steel issues—which are earning fabulous profits—being naturally leaders. Attention, however, is now being turned to other industrials in the war group; as these are benefiting from the impetus given general trade and are less hazardous than some of the highly inflated munition shares. Railroad stocks are also receiving more favor from both invesors and speculators. All the principal lines are reporting excellent earnings, and in spite of growing expenses, their net results are highly encouraging. A few lines have already increased their dividends, some have passed out of the stage of doubt in this respect, while others seem likely to advance their dividend rate in the not distant future. The betterment of the railroad situation is apparent in other directions than improvement in dividends. One of the most important things to remember in railroad matters is that public opinion is at last turning from chronic hostility and prejudice to an attitude of justice and fair play. At last it is being recognized that the railroads have been the prey of unjust treatment, that much legislation has been oppressive and unwise, that labor's demands have about reached the limit of public sympathy, and that if our transportation system is to develop in keeping with public requirements, the railroads must be placed under rational Federal protection, where it is possible for them to escape the conflicting authority of forty-eight different states and to earn a fair return for their services. This change in the attitude of public opinion is significant. One effect is the forthcoming issue of $25,000,000 New York Central stock, a transaction which may soon be followed by similar issues of other prominent systems. This is the first important block of railroad stock offered in a number of years, financial requirements having been met by a mass of short-term notes and bond issues, which left the roads burdened with fixed obligations. The relief of this hazard should be appreciated by all railroad managers, and will undoubtedly have an important effect upon the values of railroad properties.

Money is abundant and relatively easy. There is a plethora of funds seeking investment, and desirable issues are readily absorbed. Gold imports have been resumed, the total arrived since January 1 being $400,000,000, with the prospect of still more to come. Presumably these recently arrivals are to pave the way for the rumored $250,000,000 British issues. Argentina, France and Russia are also understood to be financing part of their requirements in this market. The stock market conditions favor continued activity and the trend of values seem for the present upward. Frequent reactions must be expected in case of unfavorable news or overbuying.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

New Orleans, Oct. 22.—Prices for futures were lifted to the highest point ever recorded in the local cotton market by the hurricane which struck a part of the belt last Wednesday. At the same time spots were quoted at the highest since about 1870.

At the best of the week the July option sold at 19.17 and middling cotton was quoted at 17.51.

It was a rising market on the first two days of the week, but Wednesday saw one of the most spectacular bulges since future trading was instituted here. Within a few minutes after the opening the strongest months were 86 to 89 points up, or practically $4.50 a bale.

At its highest the market last week was 128 to 154 points over the previous week's close. Liquidation on an enormous scale set in on Wednesday's advance, and during the rest of the week was almost constantly in evidence, offsetting, to a great extent the frost and freez ewhich visited the cotton region Friday and Saturday. The close was at a net gain for the week of 80 to 86 points.

The Census Bureau report on ginning to October 17 is due Wednesday and is expected to cause much liquidation since forecasts, thus far, have indicated a large output. Possibly the trade does not expect figures under 7,500,000 bales, while one prominent guess puts the total at 7,720,000 bales.

A year ago ginning to October 17 amounted to 5,710,824 bales.

DEPARTMENT STORE CHARTERED

Will Take Over Bankrupt Stock of Firm Assigned Some Time Ago.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—A charter was issued yesterday for the Capital Department Store (Inc.), of Raleigh, having for its special purpose the taking over of the bankrupt stock of the Raleigh Department store, assigned some months ago by B. S. Finger and sold at auction by Receiver J. C. Little to the Raleigh Stock Purchasing Co., of this city, representing the interests of Mr. Finger. The capital of he new corporation is $30,000 authorized $15,000 subscribed by R. S. Finger, A. M. Maupin, Ernest L. Warren and Ed. V. Denton. The company will do a general mercantile and especially department store business.

Another charter is for the Guaranteed Shoe Co., of Asheville, capital $10,000 authorized and $5,000 subscribed by S. A. Lynch and others for a general shoe store business.

TRADING STILL VOLUMINOUS

World-Wide Demand For American Products Again the Main Factor in Stock Market Last Week.

New York, Oct. 22.—World-wide demand for American products, raw and finished, was again the main factor in last week's market operations, trading maintaining the swift pace of the preceding six weeks on daily transactions ranging from 1,000,000 to almost 1,500,000 shares. In the main these dealings were attended by higher levels, some prominent stocks making new records.

U. S. Steel rose to 120 3-8, a fraction under its maximum and a recovery for the week of more than 12 points. Other industrials of the same class were strong and equipments and motors were materially higher with coppers and all base metals. The movement was strengthened by higher prices for fabricated steel and iron, an increased demand for copper and the spectacular proceedings in other commodity markets, especially grains and cotton.

Minor rails, including the shares of companies still under receivership, were generally strong. There also was a steady inquiry for the bonds of minor companies, notably convertible and refunding issues, while international issues were relatively heavy.

Another important foreign undertaking was announced in a large French commercial center which may attain the sum of $100,000,000. It is understood that maturing South American credits are to be extended and another Russian loan covering further proposed purchases of supplies is working toward completion.

On the surface there were no indications that the coming election is exciting more than passing interest.

TRIO OF URCHINS IN JAIL

Charged With Stealing $150 From Green County Tobacco Farmer.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 22.—Johnny Oliver, a small boy who a few months ago went on a "voyage of discovery" to Norfolk, and found there among other things his long-lost father, who strayed from his family fold here nigh onto a decade of years ago, regrets today that he did not stay with his dad. Johnny is in jail. Keeping him company are Joe Oliver, Jonnny's diminutive brother, and Alex. Jones, a little the eldest of the three. They were arrested for the alleged larceny of $150 from J. W. Tilghman, a Green county tobacco planter. The police say the trio of urchins were extraordinarily accommodating in assisting Tilghman to hitch up his horse at a tobacco warehouse and believe they "copped" the money while thus benevolently engaged. Patrolman George Rouse recovered between $70 and $75 from the Oliver boys when he took them into custody at the home of their mother in East Kinston. They accused Jones of having the remainder of the money; he asserted that such was not the case. Having been given a hearing before the recorder, the boys cannot raise the bail necessary to procure their liberty until the term of Superior court at which they are to be tried.

DR. GAW ACCEPTS THE CALL OF THE DURHAM BAPTISTS

Will Take Up Duties As Pastor of First Church in February.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., Oct. 22.—The Rev. Dr. Benjamin D. Gaw, of the West Washington Baptist church, has accepted the call to the First Baptist church of Durham, as tendered him last Sunday. He comes to the Durham pastorate on the second Sunday in February, 1917, as the successor of Rev. Dr. John Peter Hurt, whose going to the Wilmington charge created the vacancy. The West Washington divine comes here for a yearly salary of $3,500.

Dr. Gaw has been identified with the Washington City church about ten years. He was educated at Fishburne Military Academy, Richmond College, and Colgate University. Last year the degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon him by Richmond College.

Dr. Hight C. Moore, editor of the Biblical Recorder, occupied the pulpit of the Durham Baptist church this morning, and heartily congratulated the congregation upon its success in commanding the talent of such an able minister.

FREE WILL BAPTISTS MEET

Annual Eastern Conference in Session at Kinston.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 22.—Nearly 75 churches are represented in the annual Eastern Conference of the Free Will Baptist church now in progress here. Sessions are being held in a church in the eastern part of the city. M. C. Prescott, of Ayden, is moderator of the conference. The concluding business session will be held tonight. Sunday will be given over to service. Representative clergymen and lay members of the denomination, the majority of them from the rural sections, in which the church has the bulk of its membership, comprise the body. The delegates are a business-like lot, and every available minute of each session is utilized for the transatcion of routine business or the suggestion of things tending to strengthen the influence of the church, which is now in the most progressive stage of its history. The counties of Craven, Wayne, Duplin, Carteret, Pamlico, Beaufort, Jones and Onslow are especially well represented.

"WOODROW WILSON DAY" IS TO BE OBSERVED AT WAKE FOREST

Hon. A. L. Brooks to Speak at Big Democratic Rally.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Wake Forest, N. C., Oct. 22.—When the glories of Democracy and the brilliant record of the achievements of the Democratic party are being heralded throughout ten thousand cities in the United States on October 28th, which is to be observed as "Woodrow Wilson Day," Wake Forest will contribute her part to the success of the movement by holding a Democratic rally that will no doubt prove to be a banner day for the Democratic cause in Wake county. President W. L. Poteat has consented to read the speech prepared by President Wilson for the occasion, and the committee on arrangements has secured Hon. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, to speak to the students of the college, citizens of the community and the loyal Democrats of Wake county on that day.

If it is decided to hold the celebration during the day, the children of the county, carrying United States flags, will parade the town, while if the committee decides to hold the exercises at night, there will be a torch-light parade, headed by the Wilson-Bickett Club of Wake Forest College, followed by a host of loyal Democrats from the county, including a number of men who have State-wide reputations in political circles.

It is very fitting that Wake Forest should hold such a celebration, inasmuch as Mr. T. W. Bickett, Attorney-General and gubernatorial candidate for the State of North Carolina, spent four years of his early life here, and President Wilson also holds a degree from the college, although an honorary one.

ED. HARMON TO BE TRIED

Will be Prosecuted in State Courts for Shooting Revenue Officer.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—The authorities have decided to prosecute Ed Harmon in the Superior court of the State for the murder of Frank Knight instead of having his trial in the United States District court. Harmon shot Knight while the latter was with a party of revenue raiders breaking up Harmon's still in this county. Knight lingered in the hospital here several months, the United States Revenue department providing for his treatment to the limit of the statute on this subject, which is sixty days.

'DOINGS' OF REPUBLICANS ALARM GERMAN-AMERICANS

They Express Grave Doubts and a Deepening Distrust of Hughes and of His Party.

DR. W. HEINECKE WRITES

German-Language Papers Endeavoring to Pacify the Fears of Their Subscribers.

To the Editor of The Star:

The more German-American voters are getting to know about Republican doings the more thoroughly they are becoming alarmed. Editors of German-language papers are receiving so many letters from their subscripers, all expressing grave doubts and a deepening distrust of Hughes and his party, that some papers, unable to handle that flood of inquiries and protestations, and not daring to ignore them, are devoting special editorials to the purpose of quieting down the misgivings Germans show about Hughes.

In spite of the most vitriolic daily attacks on Wilson and his policies in the columns of many of these papers, in spite of carefully suppressing everything that could have given their readers a better understanding of American policies, and, in spite of a daily "Glory Hallelujah" in praise of Hughes and the German Millenium, he was supposed to bring after having defeated with their help the "bad, un-American" Wilson in November—in spite of all said against Wilson and in favor and praise of the glorious firm of Hughes, Roosevelt, Morgan & Co.—the German-American people have become apprehensive of being deceived and being about to commit a fatal mistake in following the lead of their anti-Wilson press.

The German-American is no such fool as to form an exception from Lincoln's saying about people that cannot be fooled all the time. The fact is that the German-language press is realizing that the growing feeling of distrust and even contempt for Hughes and his clique in German-American circles is about to crystallize into a vote for Wilson.

Very significant for the situation is an utterance of the "Milwaukee Germania," a paper which has outdone nearly all others in its Wilson-hatred, bordering on mono-mania. In a long editorial in one of its recent issues, under the caption "Wilson or Hughes?" the 'Germania" quotes from letters written by its readers to the editor, as follows:

"We know Wilson; but we don't know what we will get in Hughes, so we had better vote for Wilson."

The editorial is an almost pitiable effort to stem the tide of this growing anti-Hughes sentiment. After an admission that Hughes is indeed in bad company and that there may be reason for distrusting him, the "Germania" has no other argument to offer than this: that, according to a "natural law" that a man's profession affects his character, "a lawyer and justice must necessarily be a better man than a schoolteacher." Hence the German voters should, in the absence of other proofs of Hughes' sincerity and fitness, place their trust in the working of this "natural law" and vote for Hughes.

Well, if the German-Americans ever have had cause to complain about the "contemptible treatment" they claim to have been receiving—leave alone what Roosevelt said about them—the way their anti-Wilson press is rating their intellectual capacity is sufficient to give offense to an idiot. And the warm and loyal sympathy German-American citizens have shown for the old country does certainly not make fools of them, as the "Germania" seemingly presumes. They are awakening to the national danger a Hughes victory conjures up, and no Hughes lullaby can then put them to sleep again.

of Biaches and Blaise wood. It is confirmed that the German losses in their counter attacks in this sector yesterday were considerable ,especially before the village of Biaches, which the Germans attacked with powerful effectiveness.

"In the region of Chaulnes the enemy attacked our new positions violently at daybreak and endeavored to eject us from the woods captured by us yesterday. His efforts were futile and cost him heavy losses. Our gains of yesterday were maintained wholly.

"On the rest of the front there was intermittent artillery fire."

The bulletin issued by the war office reads:

"South of the Somme the Germans, after a violent bombardment, delivered a fresh attack toward 1 o'clock in the afternoon against the southern portion of Chaulnes wood, which we occupied. The enemy was repulsed everywhere with serious losses. He left in our hands a number of prisoners hoo have not yet been counted.

"According to late reports this morning's attack in the same region was very costly for the Germans. The enemy units who gained a foothold in our first lines were completely surrounded; 150 German survivors were taken prisoner.

"Elsewhere there was an intermittent cannonade."

MACKENSEN IN DOBRUDJA GAINS DECISIVE VICTORY

Berlin, Oct. 22. (via Sayville).—The war office announced today that Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army in Dobrudja had gained a decisive victory over the Russians and Rumanians, driving them from their positions over the whole front. The Russians and Rumanians are being pursued by the Germans and their allies. Toprai Sari and Cobadin have been captured.

ALLIES HAVE MADE STILL FURTHER DEMANDS ON GREECE

London, Oct. 22.—The presentation by the Entente Allies of further demands on Greece, including the removal of Greek troops to the southern part of the country and the handing over of Greek war supplies, is reported by Reuters Athens correspondent.

The Athens dispatch, which is dated Friday, says the demands were presented to King Constantine by the French military attache. Greece is required to transfer the entire military force in Thessaly (in the rear of the Entente allied forces in Macedonia) to Morea (the peninsula forming the southern extremity of Greece). Delivery to the Entente Allies of war materials destined for the Thessalanian forces also is required. Other demands were made the nature of which is unknown.

SOMME BATTLE CONTINUING WITH VIOLENCE, SAYS BERLIN

Berlin, October 22 (via Sayville) — In the course of violent fighting on the Somme front yesterday in which the Entente Allies sustained heavy losses, the British gained ground in the northern sector near the Ancre river, in the direction of Grand Court and Pys, the war office announced today. South of the Somme the Germans advanced their lines. The announcement follows:

"Army group of Prince Rupprecht: The Somme battle continues with violence. Yesterday was again characterized by the heaviest artillery fighting, especially north of the river. Bomb fire on the trenches and the ground on the rear preceded British attacks, which were launched from the Ancre as far as Courcelette and on both sides of Guedecourt, the attack being repeated frequently.

"The enemy suffered losses corresponding with the reckless sacrifice of human lives. He succeeded in gaining ground in the direction of Grand Court and Pys. Near Guedecourt he was repulsed. Violent fighting near Sailley-Saillesel gained no successes for the French.

"South of the Somme a counter attack gained for us possession of a number of trenches between Biaches and La Maisonette, which we recently lost. We captured from the French there three officers, 172 men and five machine guns. In the wooded region north of Chaulnes renewed fighting has been under way since last evening.

"Army group of the German Crown Prince: On the Meuse the artillery firing continues to be spirited."

BRITISH ATTAIN OBJECTIVES IN ATTACK IN SOMME REGION

London, Oct. 22.—The British attack on the Somme front yesterday resulted in the attainment of all its objectives, the war office announces. More than 800 Germans were captured. The statement follows:

"Our attack yesterday was very successful. The whole of the objectives was gained. Over 800 German prisoners were taken, and more are reported coming in at the collecting stations. Our casualties are believed to be slight.

"During the night the enemy made no attempt to retake the ground captured."

BRITISH CLAIM OVER 1,000 PRISONERS TAKEN SATURDAY

London, Oct. 22.—The official communication from British headquarters in France tonight reads:

"The total number of prisoners taken in yesterday's operations between Schwaben redoubt and LeSars is now reported as 1,018, including 16 officers.

"Early this morning the enemy exploded two mines south of Ypres, in the neighborhood of the bluff and occupied the lip of the crater thus formed, where he has been subjected to a continuous bombardment.

"During the fighting yesterday our aeroplanes did valuable work in locating enemy batteries . Five enemy machines were destroyed and four others driven down in a damaged conditions. Three of our machines are missing."

GAINS MADE BY TEUTONS IN THE REGION NEAR LEMBERG

Berlin, Oct. 22 (via Sayville).—A general attack was made yesterday by the Austro-German forces in Galicia, southeast of Lemberg. The war office announced today that the Russians had been defeated and now hold only a small stretch of territory on the west bank of the Narayuvka river. The Austrians and Germans inflicted heavy losses on the Russians and took 755 prisoners.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS FELT IN PARTS OF CALIFORNIA

Force Was Strong Enough to Tumble Crockery From Shelves.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 22.—Two slight earthquake shocks were felt her eand in neighboring towns early tonight. Chandeliers and pictures on walls were shaken and crockery was tumbled from shelves, but no material damage has been reported. The first shock was felt at 6:45 o'clock, the second ten minutes later. Each lasted several seconds.

Considerable excitement was caused in this city. Reports from Santa Anna, where the shocks seemed to be felt more perceptibly, said that residents rushed into the streets in alarm.

Fresno, Cal., Oct. 22.—According to reports received here, two earthquake shocks that were felt throughout southern California early tonight were severe at Bakersfield and in the oil fields in that district. Power lines between Bakersfield and Los Angeles were said to have been damaged and it was reported that a Santa Fe railroad ticket office at Tenachapi was wrecked.

VILLISTAS ARE CLOSELY PURSUED BY CARRANZISTAS

Decisive Clash Between the Two Forces Expected Within Few Days.

Chihuahua City, Oct. 22.—The concentrated forces of Villa are retreating from Fresno, toward Santa Ysabel, closely followed by the command of General Ozuna, according to an official report given out today by General Trevino. Decisive action is expected in a few days. Chihuahua City is quiet and every precaution has been taken here against any surprises.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 22.—General Pershing reported to headquarters tonight that both the Villistas and Carranzistas are striving to hold their respective positions following the recent encounter at Santa Ysabel, indicating that the conflict was not of decisive character. His message said that Carranaz troops were being moved southward to strengthen the force in the Santa Ysabel section.

According to the field commanders, best informed, Villas' command consists of about 500 men with arms and an equal number without arms.

DENIES HAVING MADE ANY SECRET AGREEMENT

Chairman Willcox's statement continues:

"Chairman Willcox further said that the National Committee has not had, and has not now any agreement or understanding with anybody on such a matter."

Apparently neither Mr. Hughes nor Mr. Willcox knew that the statement was to be forthcoming until after dinner tonight. The statement issued by the Democratic committee was read over the telephone, to Mr. Hughes and Mr. Willcox, by an employee of the Republican National Committee at New York, into whose hands a copy had fallen about 9 o'clock tonight.

The committee which saw Mr. Hughes included, besides Mr. O'Leary, Will R. McDonald, of New York; Carl E. Schmidt, of Detroit, chairman of the National Committee of the American Independent Conference, and Frank Seiberlich, of Boston. It was appointed at a meeting in Detroit on September 7.

The alleged disclosures, for which the Democratic National committee announced it assumes full responsibility, purports to have been taken from "the official minutes and authenticated signed transcripts of certain proceedings of the American Independence League, the high-sounding title of the secret, racial organization under which Jeremiah O'Leary and his associates have been making their furtive and nation-wide campaign in the interest of Charles Evans Hughes."

At a conference held September 30, it is asserted O'Leary made his report, which in substance was that Mr. Hughes had assured the special committee (O'Leary and his associates) that he had sent a congratulatory telegram to Colonel Roosevelt on the occasion of the colonel's Lewiston, Me., speech, before he (Mr. Hughes) had actually read the address. According to O'Leary, the Democratic statement said, Mr. Hughes had simply glanced over the newspaper headlines and comments, and felicitated Colonel Roosevelt upon what apparently was a "great Republican utterance."

A statement read to Mr. Hughes by the "zepcial committee," according to the Democratic National Committee, said in part:

"We, representing a large percentage of the voters of the United who believe in the principles of American independence and sovereignty, in conference assembled at Detroit, Mich., September 7, 1916, have been attracted by the telegram of congratulation which was sent by the Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President of the United States to Theodore Roosevelt upon the deliverance by him of a public speech at the city of Lewiston, Maine, which carried with it by expression and implication, an endorsement by Mr. Hughes of Mr. Roosevelt's pro-British and anti-American public utterances, which position has heretofore been condemned by us in conference and convention, as inconsistet with American ideals and American history.

"Under these circumstances we desire to call the attention of Mr. Hughes to the fact that Mr. Roosevelt, actuated by race prejudice and a desire to serve British interests, designedly attacked a large part of the American people, while he did not mention any of the flagrant, arrogant and continual transgressions upon American rights by Great Britain. * * *.

"We, therefore designate Carl E. Schmit, Will. R. MacDonald, Jeremiah A. O'Leary and Frank Seiberlicj as our representatives to place before Mr. Hughes this document, and we further respectfully request and empower them to secure from Mr. Hughes a definite statement for the benefit of a broad and liberal Americanism that has been offended by the British propaganda creating as it does racial antagonism in our country with resultant destruction and surrender of American rights, whether or not he will administer the Presidency of the United States in accordance with the spirits of the fathers and the whole American people, instead of at the behest of present day tories, materialists and war partisans who proclaim the false doctrine that American patriotism of British subserviency and the 'spirit of '76' is a treasonable hyphenism.

"To this document, we, the undersigned, representing various organs, individuals, constituents and interests throughout the United States, affix our names as an indication of our approval of those we represent."

O'Leary was shown a copy of the charges made by the Democratic committee at the close of an address he made here tonight in which he denounced the Wilson administration. He expressed surprise and at first said he had nothing to say.

Later, however, when asked if he had ever discussed the British blacklist with Mr. Hughes, he said:

"I never did submit any such question to Charles E. Hughes."

O'Leary refused to discuss the statement further.

"His sister had been in an insane asylum for more than ten years. Dr. Friedrich Adler advocated anarchistic theories and was a violent opponent of his own father, Dr. Victor Adler, the recognized leader of Austro-Hungarian socialists. A few days ago the Arbeiter Zeitung, of Vienna, the official newspaper of Austro-Hungarian Socialist party, published an editorial denouncing Friedrich Adler's agitation as obnoxious to the socialist party and detrimental to public interests. This editorial was all the more significant because the editor-in chief of the Arbeiter Zeitung is Dr. Victor E. Adler.

TWELVE MEN ENTOMBED IN MINE GIVEN UP AS LOST

Were Entrapped by Explosion Yesterday at Marvel, Ala.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 22.—No hope is entertained for the lives of 12 men who were trapped by an explosion at the mines of the Roden Coal Company at Marvel, Ala., this afternoon. Seven white men, including the chief electrician and the master mechanic, and five negroes are known to be entombed.

The cause of the explosion has not been definitely learned, but it is believed to have been due to gas, although the mines were tested for gas and found safe, a few hours before the disaster.

Hundreds of people were grouped about the heading of the mines tonight awaiting news from the rescuers, who have reached the ninth entry. The explosion occurred in the twelfth entry 1,200 feet from the heading of the mines.

RUSSIAN PEOPLE NEVER SO PROSPEROUS AS NOW

Returning American Describes Conditions in Moscow.

But Despite the Prosperity, There is Much Inevitable Hardship—Many Necessities of Life Growing Scarce.

Stockholm, Oct. 21. — There is much inevitable hardship in Russia, a present or threatening scarcity of many essential things and a very general and unpleasant lack of organization, but there is also another side to the picture. Everybody who wants work can get it, and wages are so high that the tremendous increase in the cost of living has been nearly offset by them. Mushroom fortunes are growing up overnight, and the demand for luxuries is so great that it can with difficulty be met.

This is the report made to a correspondent of The Associated Press by one of the best known members of the American colony in Moscow who now, after seven years' residence there, is returning to America. His activities during that period kept him in touch with most parts of the great empire, and he declared that conditions in Moscow are typical of what is to be found elsewhere, so far as prosperity is concerned, but rather worse in the matters of housing and transportation.

Moscow had roundly 2,000,000 inhabitants before th ewar. This number, he believed, had been increased about 50 percent., making the population 3,000,000. One of the immediate results has been such a scarcity of rentable houses that it is not at all unusual to find advertisers offering bonuses up to 500 roubles for anyone finding them a suitable dwelling place. There are certain restrictions against increasing rents to tenants already in occupancy, but these restrictions do not apply to new renters, and naturally such persons have to pay high prices when they do succeed in finding a house.

The number of cabs has been reduced to a fraction of the ante-bellum number, and a considerable number of street cars has also been withdrawn from service. Cab prices have increased to a point where many persons formerly addicted to the cab habit have given it up, but without finding an adequate substitute, the street cars being continually jammed to suffocation. So there is nothing to do but walk, and Moscow is a city of imposing distances.

The one really serious problem which the city faces this winter, according to the informant, is the question of fuel and light—wood coal and petroleum. Wood which cost from eight to ten roubles before the war now costs as much as fifty, and the supply is most inadequate. To be sure, there is wood enough in the empire, but transportation facilities are lacking. Indeed, one of the most unfavorable things in Russia today is, declared the American, the extreme disorganization , or prehaps better, woeful lack of organization of transportation of all kinds. Coal and petroleum are both dear and scarce, and the outlook is not for any immediate betterment.

There is a great scarcity of lard and other fats, and the meat supply is plainly becoming rapidly less. The informant declared that not only have the herds of cattle and swine been unduly reduced by excessive slaughter, but that great numbers also perished last winter, either from cold or hunger, due to insufficient care. Of foodstuffs of other sorts, however, there is no lack, and there can be no question of anybody going hungry except the unfortunate Germans and Austrians yet in the empire, who find great difficulty in getting work, and whose numbers are so great and their colonies scattered over such vast expanses of territory that it has been impossible to prevent all distress, even with the best efforts of the American diplomatic and consular offices who have undertaken the distribution of the German and Austrian relief funds.

He declared that talk of a possible revolution in Russia was preposterous.

"The Russian people," he said, "never were so prosperous as they now are, all the way from the laborer up to the highest classes. The greatest furrier in the city told me that he had never done such a business as in the last few months, new automobiles appear daily in the streets, and the laborer is eating more and wearing better clothes than he ever did.

"There is a great longing for peace among the civil population, but the soldiers were never so well fed, well clothed and happy in their lives. They are now sure that they are winning, and nothing can stop them, and they are well armed, in striking contrast to the first months of the war, when many had no arms at all."

The prohibition of vodka, said the American, by no means banished drinking or drunkenness. The Russians—in Moscow, at least, and in the great district in which the city lies—are drinking wood alcohol, and the result is many deaths, lamings, cases of blindness, etc.

"It was a great mistake " he continued, "to abolish vodka at one blow, without giving the vodka-drinking classes something to take its place. Light wines and beers would have prevented the present conditions. The Moscow beer saloon was in peace times one of the most orderly resorts in the world. One rarely or never saw a drunken man there, and there were no quarrels or disturbances of any kind. It was a pity to try to change all this at once."

The narrator named some surprising prices current in Moscow, such as 45 to 60 roubles ($22.50 to $30) for a pair of shoes, the latter being demanded for American-made goods. The suit he was wearing—an ordinary business suit— cost 150 roubles. Food prices, however, are in many instances lower than those prevailing in Berlin and far below prices asked throughout Scandinavia. Various efforts have been made to est blish maximum prices, but it has been found impossible to enforce them.

The two things which made life most unpleasant for the American in Moscow were, he said, the difficulties of getting about the city, owing to the inadequate street-car cab services (and the dearness of the latter) and the "uppishness" and general independence of the servants.

"It is getting all but impossible to find good, polite servants any longer," he said. They are all making so much money in factories that they either will not go into service at all or, if they do, ask such high wages and comport themselves in such a manner that it is intolerable. I saw a girl last week in a munition factory who, the foreman told me, was making 85 roubles a month. Before the war she did very well indeed if she made fifteen."

Matamoras, Mex., Oct. 22.—Elections throughout Mexico today to name delegates to the Mexican constitutional congress, passed off quietly everywhere, according to reports reaching military headquarters in Matomoras tonight. This was the first general election in the republic in three years.

Bucharest, Oct. 22, (via London).—Withdrawal of the Rumanians in Dubrudja, in the face of violent attacks by Field Marshal von Mackensen's army was announced today by the war office. The repulse of Teutonic forces on the Transylvanian front also is reported.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Backachy or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders, come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
